149th Annual Convention

Journal of Proceedings

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA

TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1933.

The One Hundred and Forty-ninth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled by appointment as above at 9:30 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Francis Marion Taitt, S.T.D., L.L.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. David M. Steele, D.D., the Rev. John R. Huggins, and the Rev. Richard J. Morris.

During the past Convention the following have died, who have special claim on our prayers:

Of Bishops of the Church:
Joseph Blount Cheshire — Julius Moore Horner
William Walter Webb

Of Priests of this Diocese:
Leslie Fenton Potter — Joseph Odrovonz Pienionzek
Abram Urban — William Bartlett Beach
John Alexander Goodfellow — Frank Henry Andrew
Godwin Raymond Pierce

Of Priests not canonically resident:
Amos Goddard

Of Postulants for Holy Orders in this Diocese:
George Wilkinson Stewart

Of Deaconesses of the Diocese:

Hannah Annie Pew

Of Deputies to the Last Convention:

Clarence Kates Klink	Eli Kirk Price
William H. Hughes	John Joseph Collier
Frank O. Fenner	James C. Bishop
Logan Willard Harris	Robert Leonard Budd
Charles Stewart Wurts	Edward Heston Harding
Robert Rollison	Jesse E. Harper

William F. Fell

Of Deputies to Former Conventions:

Charles Edward Ingersoll	Frederick Fowles
Charles M. Eames	C. William Spiess
Charles Henry Clarke	Frank Battles
Craig Atmore	Josiah Randall Williams

Walter Scott Hammett

The offering was for the Missionary Deficit, amounting to $29.17. On Monday night the offering amounted to $201.68.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 10:30 A. M., and, a quorum being present, proceeded to business.

The Order of the Day being the election of a Secretary, the Rev. J. M. Niblo nominated

the Rev. Richard J. Morris

On motion, the nominations were closed and the President, having cast the ballot, declared Mr. Morris duly elected.

The Order of the Day being the appointment of an Assistant Secretary, it was moved that the matter be deferred in the interest of economy. After debate, the Resolution was ordered to be Laid on the Table, and

The Secretary appointed as Assistant Secretary

the Rev. Charles S. Lyons

The Convention confirmed the appointment.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

which was adopted:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

It is to be understood that the hours referred to in the program are those known as Daylight-Saving Time.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title as far as possible. And all through the Convention Resolutions to discharge Committees from further consideration of the subject be omitted, it being understood that they are so discharged unless the Convention recommit the matter to their further consideration, or unless the work of the Committee is unfinished.

The Rev. C. H. Long presented the

which was adopted.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Canon II, Section VIII. Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, Wardens of Missions organized under the provision of the Canon on The Organization of Missions, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of this Convention.

The Secretary read the Report:

The Secretary of the Convention reports

That during the past year he has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

That under date of March 1 he sent out the Calls and other Documents for the Annual Convention.

That on February 1 only 54 of the Annual Reports of the Parishes and Missions had been returned out of the 231 due, many of them being very incomplete. He would ask once more that the Report blank be completely filled out, as all the figures are required for the Report to the General Convention, which has to be made next year, and are a permanent record of the activities of the Parishes and Missions. This is the Report of the whole Parish and not merely of the Accounting Warden.

That boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibules of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

That the following is Unfinished Business from the Annual Convention of 1932:

(1) Report of the Committee on the 150th Anniversary of the Diocese.
(2) Report of the Diocesan Campaign Fund.
(3) Report of the Committee on the Relation between the Convention and the Cathedral Chapter.
(4) Report by the Committee on Memorial to Bishop Garland.
(5) Report of the Committee on Amendment to the Constitution.

That the following Parishes have not sent in Certificates of Lay Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies in this Convention: S. Peter, Great Valley; S. John, New London; S. Luke, Chadds Ford; S. Martin, Marcus Hook; Christ, Eddington; Advent, Kennett Square; Good Samaritan, Paoli; Incarnation, Drexel Hill; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge; Christ, Franklinville; Holy Innocents, Tacony; S. Barnabas, Kensington; S. Elisabeth, Philadelphia; S. Mary, Philadelphia.

The Secretary offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS: The Church of Saint Bartholemew has requested the Bishop that it be allowed to assume the status of a Mission;

AND WHEREAS: The said Corporation was dissolved by a Decree dated May 26, 1930;

AND WHEREAS: The said Church has transferred Title to its property to The Church Foundation;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the Secretary of the Convention be and hereby is instructed to remove Saint Bartholemew's Church, 25th and Lehigh Avenue, from the List of Parishes of the Diocese and to include it in the List of Mission Stations.

The Secretary stated further:

That the same condition exists concerning Saint Barnabas' Church, 3rd and Dauphin Streets, and asked authority to change the status of that Parish similarly, when the necessary conditions have been fulfilled.

On motion, the authority was given.

The Secretary reports further:

That the following Parishes have not sent in Parochial Reports for 1932: Incarnation, Drexel Hill; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge; S. James, Downingtown; Covenant, Philadelphia; S. John, Northern Liberties. Also, of the 37 Missions and Chapels entitled to seats: S. Peter, Weldon; S. John, Essington.

That the following Parishes have not paid the required Assessments for 1932: Atonement, Morton; Christ, Franklinville; S. Bartholomew, Wissinoming; S. James, Hestonville; Trinity, Ambler; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge; S. Martin, Marcus Hook; Holy Innocents, Tacony; S. Barnabas, Kensington; Resurrection, Mayfair; S. James, Downingtown.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes which have not sent Parochial Reports, or have not paid their Assessments, be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such rights of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and, that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of the Clergy to Seats:

The Rev. Frank Goostray — The Rev. R. H. Gurley
The Rev. E. S. Thomas

Claims of Laity to Seats:

Mr. C. L. Harper — Mr. J. L. Evans
Mr. George Hall

THE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report as follows:

That in accord with Standing Order V, the Preliminary Ballot was sent out to 266 Clerical Deputies according to a list prepared by the Ecclesiastical Authority as entitled to vote and to the Rectors of the 144 Parishes in Union with the Convention (3 each) for the use of the Lay Deputies.

That from the 60 Preliminary Ballots returned the Official Ballot was prepared and sent to the Clerical Deputies and to the Lay Deputies whose election had been certified to the Secretary of the Convention under date of April 24th, and to the Secretary of the Convention.

That the elections will be held in the usual manner in the Church House, the Clergy voting in the Assembly Room and the Lay Deputies in the room adjoining. The First Ballot will be taken at 1:45 P. M.

The Committee would report further that the following who were nominated on the Preliminary Ballot have not been included on the Official Ballot:

Executive Council: Mr. W. F. Fell, who died on March 31.

Board of Triers: Rev. H. R. Gummey, who withdrew his name.

Canons of The Cathedral: Mr. R. L. Montgomery and Mr. G. W. Pepper have withdrawn their names.

Directors of The Church Foundation: Rev. J. L. Hady, who has left the Diocese.

On this latter Board the Rev. G. C. Carter was also nominated. He has been living abroad for two years and is therefore unable to serve. Does the Convention wish his name to be reported as a Nominee?

For the Committee, RICHARD J. MORRIS, Chairman.

On motion, the Committee was instructed not to report Rev. Dr. Carter's name.

The Secretary has received Communications:

(1) From the Secretary of the Province of Washington in re Reduction of Number of Provinces.

On motion, this was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business and the Chair was asked to appoint a Committee of three to consider and report to this Convention. (Page 47.)

The Chair appointed the Rev. J. M. Niblo, the Rev. G. H. Toop, D.D., and the Rev. S. V. Wilcox.

(2) From the American Foundation in re World Court.

The Secretary called the attention of the Convention to the fact that this was considered by the Conventions of 1924 and 1925, and on motion the matter was Laid on the Table.

The Secretary reported the Nominations for Offices to be filled by Elections, as certified to by the Committee on Elections. (See pp. 38, 39, 45.)

Additional Nominations being asked for, the Bishop nominated as Canons of The Cathedral—to serve for 4 years, Mr. H. W. Watson; for 1 year, Mr. S. F. Houston.

There being no further Nominations, on motion the Nominations were ordered closed, and, where only a sufficient number had been nominated, the Secretary was instructed to cast the Ballot for those nominated; which having been done, the President declared elected the following:

STANDING COMMITTEE: The Revs. G. G. Bartlett, S.T.D.; E. M. Jefferys, S.T.D.; Franklin Joiner; J. O. McIlhenny, D.D.; L. C. Washburn, S.T.D. Messrs. W. P. Barba, E. H. Bonsall, W. W. Frazier, Jr., S. F. Houston, P. S. Williams.

MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: Messrs. E. O. Coates, Spencer Ervin, B. H. Ludlow, J. P. B. Sinkler, Isaac Starr, C. R. Woodruff.

COMMISSION OF CLERICAL SALARIES AND PENSIONS: The Revs. G. G. Bartlett, S.T.D.; F. C. Hartshorne; G. E. Pember, D.D. Messrs. W. P. Barba, C. C. Brinton, N. J. Davis, L. J. Morris, W. B. Read.

TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND: Messrs. J. A. Harris, Jr., Thomas Newhall, C. S. W. Packard, Charlton Yarnall.

BOARD OF TRIERS—The Rev. George Mair.

CANONS OF THE CATHEDRAL: For 4 years—The Revs. J. M. Niblo, M. E. Peabody; Messrs. H. W. Watson, W. E. Scull. For 1 year—Messrs. R. M. Haines, S. F. Houston.

DIRECTORS OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION: For 3 years—The Revs. J. M. Collins, D. W. Gateson; Messrs. R. S. Morris, F. H. Moss, P. S. Williams. For 2 years—Mr. L. B. Runk.

The Lay Delegates confirmed the election.

The Chair appointed the Tellers as follows:

CLERICAL VOTE: The Revs. A. C. Arnold, N. H. Caley, F. B. Downs, W. H. Fryer, H. W. Jones, W. R. McKean, J. C. Roak, W. M. Sharp, W. B. Stimson, David Holmes.

PARISH VOTE: Messrs. W. A. Lippincott, Jr., E. H. Newell, G. R. Miller, Jr., M. W. Davis, M. M. Garcia, B. B. Hammond, Elwood Hannum, A. P. Harrison, W. N. Lanigan, A. B. Moore, N. W. Rightmyer, L. J. Sachs, J. S. Stephenson.

The Church of S. John, Northern Liberties, presented a Parochial Report, which the Bishop refused to accept.

The Rev. J. P. Morris presented a Resolution in re Racial Feeling in Alabama.

A motion to Lay on the Table was lost and the matter was referred to Committee on Dispatch of Business. (See page 49.)

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

The Committee recommends that the Convention:

(1) Amend Canon VII, Sec. I, by substituting for the definition of Current Expenses in the first paragraph thereof the words:

"said Current Expenses to consist of such items as are grouped thereunder in the forms of Parochial Reports put forth from time to time by authority of the General Convention."

The Resolution was adopted.

(2) At the request of the Executive Council the Committee recommends that the Convention:

Amend Canon X, Sec. IV, by inserting therein after paragraph 1 a new paragraph 2, and renumbering the following paragraphs, said paragraph 2 to read:

"No Minister-in-charge, or any other person or persons connected with a Mission shall sign any promissory notes, or contracts, or in any other way obligate the Mission for a total of more than $500.00 without the approval of the Executive Council."

The Resolution was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

(1) RESOLVED, That the action of the Executive Office in calculating Diocesan Assessments on the basis of the current expenses of the Parishes and Missions as reported in the Parochial Reports for this and previous years be approved.

(2) RESOLVED, That the Committee on Canons, in consultation with the Bishop and the Executive Council, consider the advisability of revising the Canons relating to Missions and report recommendations to the next Convention.

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CLERICAL SALARIES AND PENSIONS

and offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess the Parishes of the Diocese in a sum not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars for the purposes of the Sustentation Fund for the year 1934.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer offered the following Amendment, which was lost:

Amend the Resolution by adding the words, "Provided that the increase is approved by the Executive Council."

The Resolution was adopted.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo presented the

REPORT OF THE CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

(See Appendix J, page 326)

The Rev. J. M. Collins presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON A MEMORIAL TO BISHOP GARLAND

as follows:

To the Members of the Diocesan Convention:

In view of prevailing financial conditions, the members of your Committee on the Memorial to Bishop Garland feel that it would be better at this time not to make any definite suggestion as to the nature of the proposed memorial, since even the suggestion might involve the problem of raising the funds necessary to carry it into effect.

It is our hope that the project may be carried to completion by the time of the celebration of the 150th Anniversary of the Diocese, which will take place, as you know, in 1934. This would be entirely appropriate, and we trust that the return of normal economic conditions will help to make it possible.

Presented in behalf of the Committee,

REV. J. M. COLLINS, Chairman.

The Rev. L. C. Washburn presented the

which on recommendation was adopted.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer presented the

as follows:

"The Committee appointed by the Bishop at the Diocesan Convention of 1932 to consider the relation of the Cathedral and the Convention has met three times during the year, and, after considering the subject carefully, reports that in its judgment there is no necessity for changing the present status of the relation of the Cathedral to the Convention, and asks to be discharged from further consideration of the matter."

Signed by The Committee.

The Committee was discharged.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this Convention that before the Chapel now being erected on the Cathedral site be opened for worship, the provisions of the Canon of this Diocese regulating the opening of a new place of worship, or the gathering of a new congregation, or the change of site of an existing place of worship should be complied with.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Bishop bade the Convention to Noon Day Prayers.

The Special Order of the Day having arrived, the Rev. C. E. Snowden presented the

REPORT OF THE FIELD DEPARTMENT

Addresses were made also by:

The Rev. M. E. Peabody, the Rev. L. W. Pitt, the Rev. L. C. Lewis, Ph.D., the Rev. L. C. Washburn, S.T.D., and the Rev. C. W. Shreiner on The Diocesan Contributors' Fund.

On motion it was

RESOLVED, That the portion of the Annual Address of the Bishop which refers to the Diocesan Contributors' Fund be printed and sent to every Clergyman and Lay Deputy to the Convention.

The Rev. J. F. Bullitt presented by Title the stating that between 5,000 and 6,000 pledgors have not paid their pledges, but hope to do so in full, the amount approximating $250,000; therefore, the Fund is still being kept open.

The Executive Secretary presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

(See Appendix F, page 263)

The Rev. J. M. Collins read the

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

(See Appendix F, page 264)

The Polls were declared open between 1.45 and 2.25 P. M.

The Convention took a Recess at 12.50 P. M.

The Convention reassembled at 2.35 P. M., the Bishop in the Chair.

The COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS reported that no claims had been presented.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Bishop presented by Title the

The Rev. H. W. Fulweiler addressed the Convention on the

WORK OF THE STUDENT COMMISSION

The Special Order of the Day having arrived, Mr. Spencer Ervin addressed the Convention on

and offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Bishop be requested to appoint a Committee of seven Presbyters and seven Laymen to consider the whole Parochial System of the Diocese, the special problems of City Churches in modern life, and the relation of Parochial Endowments to the work of the Church; said Committee to report to the next Convention, circulating its printed report at least thirty days prior thereto.

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report.

The Rev. C. W. Shreiner offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Convention extend its Good Wishes to the Rev. Joseph Paul Morris in his work at Geneva, Switzerland, and assure him of their continued Prayers for his welfare therein.

The Order of the Day being the Report on City Churches, after considerable further discussion Mr. Ervin's Resolution was adopted (see page 45).

The Rev. W. P. Barba read the

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

The Rev. W. M. Sharp presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

The Committee on Charters respectfully reports that it met on May 1, 1933, at the call of the Chairman, the Rev. Walter C. Pugh.

The Committee considered the applications of The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia, and The Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. Michael's Church, Germantown, Philadelphia, for approval of amendments to their Charters providing for the consolidation of their parishes under the title of Christ Church and Saint Michael's.

The Committee finds that the amended Charter is in the proper form, being substantially in that of the approved Form of Charter, and that it conforms to the requirements of the Canon and of Article IV, Sec. 2, of the Constitution of the Diocese.

That the amended Charter has been approved by the Bishop, by the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and the Committee on Charters concurs therein and recommends that it be approved by the Convention and offers the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the amended Charters of Christ Church, Germantown, and of Saint Michael's Church, Germantown, providing for the consolidation of their parishes under the title of Christ Church and Saint Michael's, be approved by the Convention of the Diocese.

W. M. SHARP, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo reported for the

COMMITTEE ON REDUCTION OF THE NUMBER OF PROVINCES

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania goes on record as favoring the present status of The Church as divided into Eight Synods, rather than to change into a system of four or five Synods.

The Rev. J. E. Hill presented by Title the Budget for 1933 and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Executive Council be authorized to prepare the Budget for 1934 on the basis of the Budget for 1933 as to form, scope and amount, with such changes as may be necessary to meet the conditions existing in the autumn and the expected income for 1934, and to apportion the same among the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese.

(See Appendix K, page 327)

The Rev. G. H. Dennison presented by Title the

REPORT ON THE COMMISSION ON MUSIC

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Music be discharged and a new Commission be appointed by the Bishop.

The Rev. G. C. Foley presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHANGES IN THE CONSTITUTION

and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

(1) RESOLVED, That the proposed changes in Article I, Section 3, be approved.

(2) RESOLVED, That the proposed changes in Article II, Section 6, be approved.

(3) RESOLVED, That the proposed changes in Article II, Section 3, be approved. (This was adopted on Division—Ayes 107; Noes 98.)

(4) RESOLVED, That the proposed changes in Article II, Section 6, be approved.

The Rev. W. C. Pugh presented the

calling attention to the provision of the Canon that all matters must be presented to the Committee at least thiry days before the Convention, and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Amendment to the By-Law of Saint Stephen's Church, Bridesburg, changing the day of the Annual Election, be approved by the Convention.

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

(See Appendix, page 322)

and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Report of the Board of Examining Chaplains be printed in the JOURNAL.

RESOLVED, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to pay bills incurred by the Examining Chaplains in their work, provided the total amount of such bills does not exceed one hundred and fifty dollars.

The Bishop nominated as Examining Chaplains:

For the term expiring in 1936: the Revs. W. H. Anthony, Ph.D., J. M. Collins, Henry Davies, Ph.D., C. E. Grammer, S.T.D., J. C. H. Mockridge, D.D.; for the term expiring in 1934: the Rev. R. T. Lyford, in place of the Rev. S. M. Holden, resigned.

The Convention approved the Nominations.

The Bishop appointed the Committees: On Arrangements; On Canons; On Charters; On Dispatch of Business; On Elections; On Expenses (for personnel see page 7).
Chancellor of The Diocese, Mr. R. S. Morris.
Registrar of The Diocese, The Rev. A. H. Hord.

The Rev. J. P. Morris offered the following Resolution, in place of one offered previously (see page 40):

RESOLVED, That the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, assembled May 2, 1933, authorizes the Department of Christian Social Service to extend to the Rt. Rev. William G. McDowell, Bishop of Alabama, and to the Rev. Charles Clingman, of Birmingham, such sympathy and co-operation as may aid in securing Christian reconciliation and fellowship between the races.

On motion the Secretary was ordered to expunge from the Minutes the former Resolution of Mr. Morris and action thereon.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to send to Mr. W. W. Frazier, Jr., an expression of sympathy in his illness and an appreciation of the valuable work he has done for the Diocese, together with prayers for his full recovery.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That 650 copies of the JOURNAL be printed and distributed as usual.

RESOLVED, That the Committee on Arrangements be instructed to arrange for the employment of the Public Address System for the Convention of 1934.

RESOLVED, That the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the Wardens and Vestry of the Church of The Holy Trinity for the use of their buildings for the meeting of the Convention.

RESOLVED, That the next Annual Convention be held on Tuesday, May 1, 1934, starting with a dinner on Monday evening when the Annual Address of the Bishop shall be read, at such place as the Bishop and Standing Committee may appoint.

RESOLVED, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay the honorarium of $75 to the Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

RESOLVED, That the Bishop be authorized to appoint after the adjournment of the Convention the usual Committees and Commissions.

RESOLVED, That the bills for Luncheon and for the Installation of the Address System be referred to the Committee on Expenses.

RESOLVED, That after the reading of the Rough Minutes and prayers by the President, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The Rough Minutes were read and approved.

After prayers by the President, the Convention adjourned at 5.35 P. M. sine die.

FRANCIS M. TAITT,
President of the Convention.

(ATTEST) RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of the Convention.

Registered Attendance: Clerical Deputies 229, Lay Deputies 244 (112 Parishes); Lay Representatives 7.

It is a great joy to present to you this annual account of my stewardship, and, with you, rejoice and thank God for the many blessings he has conferred upon our Diocese.

I again begin my account by expressing thankfulness to God for three things.

First of all, I thank Him for the abounding health that He has given me. Although averaging six to nine public addresses every week, I have not been obliged to omit or postpone a single engagement.

Second, I thank Him for the happy relations still existing between the Diocesan and every member of the Diocese. I believe that they are as loving in their relation to me as I am in my relation to them; and each is as earnest in his desire to do the work that God has given us to do. The feeling that "everything is going to the dogs" is ancient, but not Catholic. It fulfils a part of the Vincentian Canon, in that it was believed "at all times and everywhere," but it fails in that it is not believed by "all people."

My Grandad viewing earth's worn cogs,
Said "things are going to the dogs."
His Grandad in his house of logs,
Said "things are going to the dogs."
His Grandad in his old skin togs,
Said "things are going to the dogs."
His Grandad in the Flemish bogs,
Said "things are going to the dogs."
Howe'er it be, I've this to state,
The dogs have had a long, long wait.

There may be a few in this Diocese, but I think they are very few, who have such ideas. In this great world of ours there are no spectators or mere critics. We are all actors in the great drama of life.

In this great Diocese of ours, there are none on the sidelines looking to see how things will turn out. All are participants in the great work God has given us to do. We do not want to see "how things will turn out," but we want to turn them out as God gives us wisdom and power to do.

Third, I am thankful that we met our Missionary Expectation of the last year. Men had much less to live on, and to give, than in former years; yet by great energy on the part of some, and great denials on the part of others we reached our goal. That we may be as successful this year is my earnest hope. It is a harder year than last year, and will require greater denials and sacrifices, but it can and I trust will be done. I confidently look for the assistance of everyone.

Gifts Direct to Diocese

Last year we adopted a plan that, I believe, is used in Massachusetts and southern Ohio. After each has made a donation of his fair share to his Parish, he is asked to make a direct gift to the Diocese. In many cases there are individuals who are able, and would like to give largely to Missionary work, but they feel that a larger gift to the Parish would simply excuse others from giving a fair share, and not benefit the cause. They are, therefore, glad of the opportunity of making a direct gift. The appeal to individual givers does not go out until about three months after the Every Member Canvass or the subscriptions are made to the Parish Quota. Thus it cannot interfere with any Parish. The Parishes have already reported what they can give, and it is the deficit that is supplied by the Diocesan givers. It has been very successful. We hope that it will be increasingly so.

The Missionary cause is the primary work of Christianity. The spirit of Christianity is the spirit of giving. The three invitations of Christ are "Come unto me"; "Abide in me"; and "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel." We are invited to come in order that, imbibing His spirit, we may go. A Parish devoid of this spirit cannot be called Christian, for Christ has declared, "I came not to be ministered unto but to minister" and "it is more blessed to give than to receive." Whatever may be its temporary success, it is destined to ultimate failure. A great artist was asked to paint a decaying Church. Instead of a ruined Abbey overgrown with ivy, he embodied Milton's description:

"The high embowered roof,
With antic pillars massy proof,
And storied windows richly dight,
Casting a dim religious light.
The pealing organ blow,
To the full voiced quire below
In service high and anthems clear,
As may with sweetness, through mine ear,
Dissolve me into ecstacies
And bring all heaven before mine eyes."

but in a corner of the Church was a box for missionary work; but so neglected that a spider had spun a web over the opening for offerings. It was a decaying Church. We hope we have none such in our Diocese.

The financial condition of the world confirms the wisdom of the Bishop in declining to have either Coadjutor or Suffragan. A Coadjutor would have added at least $16,500 to the budget and would have entailed a hardship on the Diocese. With the aid of the six Deans, each of whom is very much like a Suffragan Bishop, the Bishop has been able to do the whole work alone. He cannot thank too heartily these noble men who have added the work of the Deanship to already heavy parochial duties. With assiduous care and unfailing wisdom and unstinted labors, each has kept his Convocation up to a high standard, and met the problems of the Parishes and Missions. The cheerful spirit and the wondrous interest of our Convocation meetings attest the happy relations of Dean and people. The same happy spirit is manifested in our large Committees. The Executive Council with its division into Field, Finance, Social Service, and Missions takes up its serious and complex problems with a cheerfulness and hope that assures success. Nor can we omit mentioning our Chancellor, the Honorable Roland S. Morris, whose wisdom is so necessary, whose decisions are of so much value, and whose readiness to serve is unfailing. Many great legal problems come before us and we know that his decisions are always right. I do not know of a Bishop who has about him such competent and devoted fellow-laborers as the Bishop of Pennsylvania.

Avoiding Increased Maintenance Expense

There were many pleasing events in the past year:

On October twenty-first I attended a dinner to congratulate Mr. Eugene Beck on completing fifty years as a Vestryman of St. Luke's Church, Bustleton.

Some Pleasing Events of Year

On November thirteenth I preached a sermon commemorative of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Rectorship of Dr. Louis C. Washburn, of Christ Church. The Church was crowded with a distinguished congregation. It was a most deserved congratulation to the Rector, and thanksgiving to God for a most notable Rectorship.

Early in the morning of February twenty-second it was a joy to celebrate the Holy Communion and administer to several hundred men at Holy Trinity Church. Afterward all had breakfast at the Penn Athletic Club, with a notable address by Mr. Benjamin Ludlow and an hour of social intercourse. What a splendid celebration of the day!

On September fourth I preached the sermon at the 218th anniversary of St. David's, Radnor.

On September eighteenth I attended and made an address at the two hundred and thirty-second anniversary of St. Peter's, Great Valley.

On September twenty-fifth I preached the anniversary sermon commemorating two hundred and twenty years of Parish existence of St. James Church, Bristol.

On October sixteenth I preached the hundredth anniversary sermon of St. Luke's, Newtown, and on October thirtieth the hundredth anniversary sermon of St. Mark's, Frankford.

On October fourth it was a great joy to preach the thirtieth anniversary sermon of the Rectorship of the Rev. Horace A. Walton at the Church of the Good Samaritan, Paoli. No Rector in the whole Diocese is more loved. The Bishop has known and loved him through his whole ministry, and it was a great pleasure to spend the morning with him and his beloved people.

There have been some notable improvements:

After a devastating fire, St. Matthew's Church, completely restored, was rededicated by me on September twenty-fifth.

Notable Improvements

The Seamen's Institute has added a sixth floor pavilion to its splendid buildings at Second and Walnut Streets.

Christ Church has built an Administration Building where its treasures may be preserved; a fitting place for the administration of Christ Church Hospital may be had; and house accommodations for the Sexton provided. In honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of its beloved Rector the building is called "Washburn House."

St. Asaph's, Bala, has enlarged and beautifully enclosed its graveyard.

Good Samaritan, Paoli, has furnished a chime of ten bells commemorative of the thirtieth anniversary of its much esteemed Rector.

On December eleventh I dedicated chimes at St. Martin's, Oak Lane, in memory of the Rev. Llewellyn N. Caley, D.D., their late and greatly mourned Rector.

All Saints, Norristown, has redecorated its Parish Building and has also been the recipient of $5,000 for its Endowment Fund.

The Church of the Messiah, Gwynedd, has rebuilt its Parish Building that was destroyed by fire last November.

On Saturday, June twenty-fifth, ground was broken for St. Mary's Chapel, the first building on the Cathedral site. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frederick Houston paid the mortgage on the part of the ground on which the Chapel is being erected, and thus gave us unrestricted ownership. The Chapel is built from funds left by Mrs. Henry W. Watson and is a memorial to her mother. The location is the highest in Philadelphia and is ideal for such a purpose.

Work has been started at West Oak Lane and gives promise of great success. It is possible that an established Parish may transfer to this site.

New Work Developing in Diocese

St. Anne's, Willow Grove, has made such rapid progress that a new building is to take the place of its outgrown Chapel.

On November twelfth I broke ground for St. Faith's, Brookline, and it now has a very comfortable Church. While financial assistance is needed in building the Church, it is the hope and expectation that the services will be entirely supported by the worshippers.

Trinity, Solebury, has at last a Parish Building. Such a place was very much needed in the neighborhood. It is a sort of Community House.

With a colored population surrounding the Church of the Holy Comforter, it was determined to remove the work to Delaware County, and transfer St. Monica's colored Church from Woodland Avenue to the building thus left. Since that time the colored population has so increased that we have resumed work on Woodland Avenue in old St. Monica's building, in addition to the new work. It is a great joy to the Bishop to know that we have more colored communicants in the five counties composing our Diocese than in the five Dioceses comprising the States of North and South Carolina. We have seventeen most intelligent and devout congregations.

While many of our Parishes have conducted relief work among the distressed, there have been two notable centres.

Relief Work by Parishes

Old Christ Church has regularly dispensed food and has also spent over $5,000 in this work of relief of the needy.

St. Barnabas, Kensington, in the midst of the mill district where the depression is most keenly felt, has been a veritable oasis in the desert. Thousands have been fed. One substantial meal has been served every day in the Parish Building. While many Parishes assisted in this work, the foremost of all was St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill. Without its assistance the work could not have been maintained as it was.

The principal amount of work of this kind is done by the City Mission.

Our four Polish Churches are all giving good account of themselves. The Rev. Joseph O. Pienionzek, who has given service at the Church of the Advent for many years, died April seventeenth and was buried from this Church. The Rev. Edward M. Baczewski, of Holy Redeemer, will take the work in addition to his own.

Work Among the Foreign-Born

Our three Italian Churches are increasing numerically. At my last visitation to L'Emmanuello, which is combined with St. Elisabeth's, I received one hundred and twelve persons who had been confirmed in the Roman Church.

Our French Church needs no financial assistance and conducts its own work.

We have some splendid institutions in our Diocese, and they are quite inadequately supported. I call your attention to this because I know that it is not from an unwillingness of our people to be parted from their money; nor their lack of sympathy with suffering humanity. Our members give largely to other things, but not to Church objects. It may be that they seem smaller, but we have fewer people to whom to appeal. To cite four out of many:

Our Institutions

The House of Rest for the Aged is doing a splendid work, but it is filled to capacity and some needy cases are being supported outside the institution. The Houston Estate very generously gave us the use of the adjoining house for five years. This helps us, but we have still a long list of those who need our care and for whom we can make no provision. If means could be provided for an additional building, it would be a great blessing.

The Episcopal Hospital is the pride of our Church. It receives no aid from the State, nor does it want it. It wants to be untrammeled in its work. Its rates are low and its free patients are many. Its service is equal to any hospital in the State. The income from endowments has shrunken because of world conditions, and the ability of its patients to pay has decreased.

Episcopal Hospital, Pride of the Church

It has taken advantage of the low rate of building prices to correct a fault in construction and at the same time to greatly increase its capacity and effectiveness. The cost of this improvement, however, has been a great drain on its resources, and it must look to the generously disposed in our Church to replace the loss. I wish every member of this Church could visit this hospital and see its greatness and beauty. It ranks high with experts. Next Saturday, May sixth, at 3 P. M., there will be a short service of dedication of the new building. I hope to be there, and I wish I could see all the clergy and every communicant of our Church present. I am sure if I did, you would be more proud of your Church than you have ever been. Mark it in your engagements and come.

Our Home for Consumptives at Chestnut Hill is one of the most notable institutions of the kind in our State. Its percentage of cures is great, and the number of those who are improved and the lengthening of life of its patients is astounding. I know of no place where I meet such happy people. Everyone who has ever been a patient there is most enthusiastic, yet it is inadequately supported.

We have one of the finest institutions for preparing young women for their work in the Church. The Church Training and Deaconess School has for forty-three years done magnificent work. It is now greatly handicapped and in danger of closing, from lack of endowment and annual contributions.

A list of our institutions may be had for the asking at the Church House. I am sure, to be informed will be to be inspired. I hope our people will be generous in their support of these institutions, and that they will likewise remember them when making disposition of their worldly goods.

Next year the General Convention will meet at Atlantic City. It commemorates the Sesquicentennial of the organization of the Diocese of New Jersey. The Convention is held in a place most central to our Church people. Within a short distance are the Dioceses of New Jersey, Newark, New York, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Easton and Washington. There is an Auditorium capable of seating 40,000 people. It is a great dream of my life that this shall be filled at the opening service. I have thought that if the older boys and girls of the Church Schools and persons of limited means were encouraged to put away ten cents a week for one year, the $5.00 thus accumulated would cover all expenses of travel and meals, and give each at least one dollar for the offering. It would also give them a wonderful and enthusiastic idea of their Church. Next year also marks the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of our Diocese. A report will be made at this Convention on the proper way of celebrating the occasion. By putting this celebration at a time when the General Convention is in session will give us the opportunity for more elaborate services. It is a great event and should be commemorated in a fitting manner.

The 1934 General Convention

My Address would be incomplete without reference to our wonderful Woman's Auxiliary, both Convocational and Diocesan. The one assisting in the Missionary work of the Convocation and the other a mighty power in the great work of God in the world. Both organizations bring together women from every Parish and inspire them with such a love for God and impart to them such a knowledge of the work to be done, that nothing is impossible.

Our Department of Religious Education, though an acephalus body, is unfailing in its labors and is accomplishing much good. Through the thought and energy of Dr. Thomas S. Gates, President of the University of Pennsylvania, the Rev. Walter Brooke Stabler has been put on the regular staff of the University to give religion its proper place in education. He was formerly connected with our National Council. We have also a University Pastor, the Rev. Arthur F. McKenny, who succeeds the Rev. John R. Hart, Jr., who held the position with such acceptance for more than a quarter of a century. Several Rectors are opening their homes to students of the various Colleges in and around Philadelphia.

Our Department of Christian Social Service, under the able leadership of the Honorable Clinton Rogers

Woodruff, the distinguished Director of Public Welfare of Philadelphia, is continuing its splendid work. It is one of the best of our Departments, and as fine as can be found in any Diocese.

I want to close with a most cheering note. I have interrogated many of our Clergy as to the effect of the financial depression upon Church attendance. Everyone has said there has been a marked increase. All who gave any estimate of the increase said it was at least 20%. Some have told me of increases in the Confirmation Classes, but all have reported the largest Easter Communions in their history. If our distresses have turned our minds to God; if the failure of other things has strengthened our dependence upon Him as the unfailing One, if we are led to seek His guidance because we distrust our own, we are on the sure road to recovery. Not, however, are we to seek the hectic conditions of the past few years which we called prosperity, but adherence to the twofold Commandment—"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and thy neighbor as thyself." "Through whatever door the future may be entered, the Master-key is not that of circumstance, but that of character," and in the meantime, to quote the words of a lay member of this Convention, "To be lost in the woods is both terrifying and distracting; but if you trust your guide, the most strenuous trip through the wilderness is a peaceful experience." We remember the words of Him who said, "I am the light of the world. He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness but shall have the light of life."

Increase in Church Attendance

Let us have more frequent communions and a revival of Evening Prayer in every Parish that the light of Christ may shine on the road of those who with awakened consciences are seeking to know and do His will.

I am afraid our minds have been too disturbed by the financial side of our present condition. Parishes and Missions have suffered severe strains and many of the Clergy have made great sacrifices.

Spiritual Values Above Material

Perhaps our prayers have been more "Give us this day our daily bread" than "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." Let us now wholly turn to the spiritual side. We see a people, many of whom have as Jeremiah declares "forsaken the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns that can hold no water." They are now turning back to God. It is for us to point the way to these whose souls are thus athirst for God.

Let us by loving pastoral work; by faithful, thoughtful, Evangelical preaching; by frequent celebrations of the Blessed Sacrament; and by earnest exhortation, that men receive it to the strengthening and refreshing of their souls, bring the family of God back to the Father's House.

Let us live in close companionship with God that knowing His will, we may speak to His disturbed people, and in His name may say:

"Whom wilt thou find to love ignoble thee,
Save me, save only me?
All which I took from thee, I did but take,
Not for thy harms,
But just that thou might'st seek it in my arms,
All which thy child's mistake
Fancies as lost, I have stored for thee at home,
Rise, clasp my hand, and come."

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

JOSEPH BLOUNT CHESHIRE, Fifth Bishop of North Carolina, died on December 26, 1932, at the hospital in Raleigh, in his eighty-third year. About ten days previously he had developed a case of blood-poisoning, which could not be overcome. He was born in Tarborough, North Carolina, on March 27, 1850, graduating from Trinity College in 1869. For six years he practiced law in his native city and in Baltimore, being made Deacon in 1878 and ordained to the Priesthood in 1880. From 1878 to 1881 he was in charge of The Chapel of The Cross at Chapel Hill, and for the twelve years following was Rector of Saint Peter's Church, Raleigh. On October 15, 1893, he was consecrated Assistant Bishop of North Carolina by Bishops Lyman, Watson and Capers, becoming Diocesan two months later on the death of Bishop Lyman, so that his whole Ministry was accomplished in a single Diocese. Very greatly interested in the work among the Negroes, he aided largely in bringing Saint Augustine's School to its present high rank among the schools which minister to the Colored race. He was the author of several books on local history and a Trustee of the University of North Carolina since 1885.

WILLIAM WALTER WEBB, Sixth Bishop of Milwaukee, died at his home on January 15, 1933, in the seventy-sixth year of his age. The interment was in the church yard of Saint James the Less in Philadelphia on January 20th. He was born in Germantown, Philadelphia, on November 20, 1857, receiving his early education at the Episcopal Academy, the University of Pennsylvania, where he graduated in 1879, and at Trinity College in the Class of 1882. From there he went to the Berkeley Divinity School, being made Deacon in 1885 and ordained to the Priesthood in 1886. During his Diaconate he served at Trinity Church, Middletown, coming to this Diocese in 1886 as Assistant Minister at the Church of The Evangelists. In 1889 he started Saint Elisabeth's Church and became its first Rector. Here he remained until 1892, when he went to Nashotah House as Professor of Dogmatic Theology and was elected President of that institution in 1897. He was a Deputy to the General Convention from 1898 to 1904. On February 24, 1906, he was consecrated Bishop-Coadjutor of Milwaukee by Bishops Nicholson, Grafton and White, becoming Diocesan when Bishop Nicholson died on October 29 of that same year. His chiefest joy was in the Pastoral side of his Ministry, concerning the exercise of which he wrote several books and pamphlets.

JULIUS MOORE HORNER, First Bishop of Western North Carolina, died on April 5, 1933, in the seventy-fourth year of his age, after an illness of several months. He was born in Oxford, North Carolina, on July 7, 1859, receiving his early education at the Horner Military Academy, the University of Virginia and Johns Hopkins University. He graduated from the General Theological Seminary in 1890, being made Deacon that year and ordained to the Priesthood the year following by Bishop Lyman. Always intensely interested in educational matters, he was Co-Principal of the Horner School at Oxford from 1898 to 1906. He founded also the Schools at Valle Crucis; Christ, Arden; Patterson, Legerwood; Appalachian, Penland. On December 28, 1898, he was consecrated Missionary Bishop of the District of Asheville, by Bishops Cheshire, Watson and Capers, becoming Diocesan of Western North Carolina when that Diocese was formed in 1922.

Of Priests of this Diocese:

LESLIE FENTON POTTER, Rector of Saint Mark's Church, Frankford, Philadelphia, died on July 15, 1932, in the sixty-fifth year of his age. He suffered a partial breakdown some two years ago, but was able to resume work after many months in the hospital. He was born in Canton, New York, on December 5, 1867, receiving his early education at Hobart College, Washington University and the General Theological Seminary. He was made Deacon in 1894 and ordained to the Priesthood the same year. From 1894 to 1896 he was in charge of Saint Paul's Church, Mexico, Missouri, and for the two years following of Saint Matthias' Church, Omaha, Nebraska. In 1898 he became Rector of Grace Church, Kirkwood, Missouri, and was Dean of the Southern Convocation in that Diocese. In 1913 he accepted a call to Saint Simon's Church, Chicago, leaving there in 1918 to become Dean of Saint Mark's Pro-Cathedral at Grand Rapids, Wisconsin. He came to Saint Mark's Church in 1921.

WILLIAM BARTLETT BEACH, Rector of the Church of Our Saviour, Jenkintown, died very suddenly at Brighton, England, on July 24, 1932, in the sixtieth year of his age, from a heart attack. He was born in England August 7, 1871, receiving his early education at Winchester College. Coming to this Country, he served as Assistant Master at Saint John's School, Montreal, Canada, being made Deacon in 1895 and ordained Priest the following year by the Bishop of Delaware. In 1897 he was Curate to the Bishop of Pittsburgh for one year, becoming Rector of Saint Paul's Church, Pittsburgh, in 1898. In 1902 he accepted a call to Saint John's Church, Wilmington, Delaware, leaving there in 1906 to become Rector of the Church of The Good Shepherd, Scranton, where he remained until 1927, serving also on the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Bethlehem from 1911 to 1921, as an Examining Chaplain from 1913 to 1920, and as a Deputy to the General Convention in 1916. He came to this Diocese in 1927 as Rector of the Church of Our Saviour, being an Examining Chaplain in 1931, a member of the Executive Council in 1931, and of the Board of Triers in 1932.

ABRAM LINWOOD URBAN, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died in Montgomery Hospital, Norristown, on August 8, 1932, in his eighty-fourth year. He was born in Conestoga Centre, Pennsylvania, on June 10, 1849, receiving his early education in the Public Schools and at Drew Theological Seminary. For some years he was a Minister in the Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Church, during which time he was Chaplain of the State Senate for two Sessions, being ordered Deacon in 1893 and ordained Priest the year following by Bishop Rulison. From 1894 to 1896 he was Assistant Minister at Saint Luke's Church, Scranton; from 1896 to 1901, Rector at Christ Church, Woodbury; from 1902 to 1907, Priest-in-charge at Epiphany Mission, Royersford, and from 1907 to 1916, Priest-in-charge at Holy Trinity, Lansdale. An author of several books, he wrote also many devotional articles for the Church News and other Church publications. Three sons and a grandson are in Holy Orders.

FRANK HENRY ANDREW, a Non-Parochial Priest of this Diocese, died in Boston, Massachusetts, at his home, on October 16, 1932, in the thirty-seventh year of his age. He was born in Boston on July 20, 1896, graduating from Boston University in 1918 with a degree of B.S., later on attending the New Church Theological School, Andover, and Harvard University, where he received a B.D. and entered the Swedenborgian Ministry, preaching in the Congregational Church. He was confirmed in 1928 and entered the Divinity School in Philadelphia, being made Deacon in 1930 and ordained Priest that same year. Of very frail physique and uncertain health, he ministered variously at Saint Clement's Church and the Church of The Good Shepherd, Rosemont, in this Diocese, in the Diocese of Vermont, and at the Church of The Advent, Boston, until he was compelled to give up active work.

GODWIN RAYMOND PIERCE, Rector of the Church of Saint John Chrysostom, died on November 13, 1932, in the forty-eighth year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia on February 3, 1885, and received his early education at George Washington University. For some years he served as an electrical engineer at Schenectady, and as Captain in the Engineer Corps during the War; but deciding to study for Holy Orders, he was prepared privately, being made Deacon in the Diocese of Albany in 1928, and ordained Priest the year following. He served as Curate at Christ Church, Balston Spa, New York, in 1928, at Saint George's Church, Utica, in 1929, and at Saint John's Church, Norristown, in this Diocese, in 1930, until he accepted the call as Rector at Saint John Chrysostom in the summer of that year.

JOHN ALEXANDER GOODFELLOW, Rector of the Church of The Good Shepherd, Kensington, died on February 13, 1933, in his eighty-seventh year. He was born in Philadelphia on December 1, 1846, receiving his early education in the public schools of the city and at Saint John's Missionary Training School at Camden, New Jersey, where he graduated in 1867. Entering the Divinity School in Philadelphia that same year, he was made Deacon in 1870 and ordained Priest in 1872. During his Diaconate he served at Saint John's Church, Camden, where he erected the Church building. In March, 1872, he came to this Diocese as Rector of the Church of The Good Shepherd, which had just arranged to move from a hall to its present site, and began what proved to be the longest Rectorship of our Diocesan history, if not of the entire Church. The splendid group of buildings and the affection of the whole neighborhood are ample monuments to the success and devotion of his ministry. In addition to other Diocesan appointments he served as Dean of his Convocation from 1913 to 1917, while his very great interest in the freeing of the pews was manifest in his long service as Secretary of the Free and Open Church Association. He was senior Presbyter of the Diocese in point of Canonical Residence.

JOSEPH ODROVONZ PIENIONZEK, Priest-in-charge of the Church of The Advent, Philadelphia, died on April 17, 1933, in the sixty-fifth year of his age. He was born in Kladowa, Poland, on May 20, 1868, of aristocratic ancestry, receiving his early education in the high school at Kalisz. Becoming interested in the Church, he entered the Jesuit Order Bonifratres as a Novice. Later he attended the University at Cracow, where he graduated in 1891 with the Degree of Doctor of Pharmacy. He was made Deacon in the Old Catholic Church of America by Bishop Miraglia on April 9, 1913. Pending a decision on the validity of the Orders in that Church, he applied for Holy Orders in this Diocese, serving as Lay Reader at the Church of The Advent, and was made Deacon on December 20, 1914, being ordained to the Priesthood the June following, and accepting the appointment of Missionary to the Foreign Population in Philadelphia, with Title at the Church of The Evangelists, and in 1918 at the Church of The Advent. He acted also as Port Chaplain during all of his Ministry. He was an accomplished linguist in the Eastern European languages.

AMOS GODDARD, Canonically resident in the Missionary District of Anking, acting Priest-in-charge of Saint Luke's Church, Newtown, and of Saint Wilfred's Mission, Dolington, died very suddenly on Sunday, November 13, 1932, in the fifty-eighth year of his age. He was driving to an afternoon service, when he suffered a stroke of apoplexy, from which he did not recover. He was born in Philadelphia, September 16, 1875, receiving his early education at the Central High School, at the University of Pennsylvania, where he graduated in 1889, and at the Divinity School in Philadelphia, being made Deacon on his graduation in 1902. He went at once to missionary work in China, where he was ordained to the Priesthood in 1904. For several years he was in Evangelistic work, until he became Headmaster at Saint John's School for Boys at Kiukiang. With the outbreak of the war he was recalled to this country, doing Supply Work with the expectation of returning to the Mission Field, until he became Priest-in-charge at S. Luke's Church in 1930.

GEORGE WILKINSON STEWART, a Postulant for Holy Orders in the Diocese, was killed in an automobile accident on November 10, 1932, aged twenty-five years. Originally an Applicant for Holy Orders from the Church of The Incarnation, Drexel Hill, he was transferred later to the Church of The Holy Apostles and entered the Divinity School in Philadelphia in the fall of 1932. His early education was at Leonard Hall and at William and Mary College. He had been recommended to be admitted a Candidate for Holy Orders.

Of Deaconesses:

HANNAH ANNIE PEW, a retired Deaconess of the Diocese, died in Philadelphia on September 14, 1932, in the sixty-sixth year of her age. She was born in Burlington, New Jersey, on January 7, 1867, attending the Church Training and Deaconess House, and being set apart on October 4, 1899. During the next year she took further training in New Haven, Connecticut, coming to the Church of The Crucifixion in 1900. From 1905 to 1912 she was in charge of Holy Cross House, Saint Louis, Missouri, being forced to resign because of ill health. In 1915 she came to Saint Nathanael's Church, where she remained for three years. From 1918 to 1923 she was attached to the City Mission, after which she was compelled to relinquish all active work.

Of Deputies to the Last Convention:

Eli Kirk Price died very suddenly at his home on January 24, 1933, in the seventy-third year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia, graduating from the University of Pennsylvania in 1881 and from the Law School two years later. He was a Vestryman at Saint James's Church for many years and served as a Deputy to the Convention of the Diocese from 1929 to 1932. Very greatly interested in the Cathedral movement from the outset, he was a Charter Member of the Chapter and most active in every phase of that important undertaking. His outstanding judgment and whole-hearted service have been invaluable in its development. His place will be hard to fill. Nor may his civic record be forgotten. As Trustee of the University, of the Academy of Fine Arts, of the Institution for the Blind, of the American Philosophical Society; as Treasurer of the Woodlands Cemetery; as President of the City Parks Commission and Vice-President of the Fairmount Park Commission, his outstanding monument is the Pennsylvania Museum of Art, of which he was President and originator. That his worth was recognized is witnessed to by his nomination to the Philadelphia Award in 1929, as well as in the foreign honors bestowed on him by France and Italy.

Robert Rollison, Rector's Warden of Saint Nathanael's Church, died on April 17, 1933, in the eighty-ninth year of his age. He was a Lay Reader of the Diocese and a Charter Member of the Parish, serving on the Vestry and as a Deputy to the Convention since 1923, when it was admitted to union with the Convention.

John Joseph Collier died at the Episcopal Hospital on November 24, 1932, aged seventy-six years. Born in New England, he came to the Diocese in 1892. In addition to his many activities in the business world, he found much time and inclination to take an active part in the work of the Church. He was a Vestryman at Christ Church, Ridley Park, for 37 years, and Accounting Warden from 1910, a Deputy to the Diocesan Convention since 1906, and a Lay Reader for many years. He was active in the starting of the Church Pension Fund in 1915 and served on the Commission on Clerical Salaries; on the Board of Trustees of the Diocese from 1908 to 1928; on the Executive Council from 1924 to 1926; and on the Board of Missions in 1915, taking an important part in the work of the Convocation. He was Treasurer of the Church Extension Fund since its start in 1913, of the Committee on Work Among the Jews since 1912, and of the Cathedral Chapter since its inception in 1925.

William F. Fell, a Vestryman of Grace Church, Mount Airy, died March 31, 1933, in the eightieth year of his age.

He was born in Philadelphia on May 22, 1853, and attended the Northwest Grammar School until he was fourteen years old, when he became interested in the printing business as a press-feeder, establishing his own company nine years later. He was at one time Vestryman at Zion Church and Superintendent of the Sunday School, positions which he filled later at Grace Church, for a total term of fifty years. He was a Deputy to the Convention of the Diocese from 1912, serving on the Executive Council in 1927, and from 1929 to his death, as well as on numerous committees of the Diocese and of the Convocation.

Clarence Kates Klink, a Vestryman of Saint Stephen's Church, Philadelphia, died on May 14, 1932, aged 81 years. He was a Lay Reader, member of the Executive Council in 1931 and 1932, and a Deputy to this Convention from 1929.

Report of the Standing Committee

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania held its regular meetings throughout the year and begs to report its principal acts as follows:

Organized by election of Rev. E. M. Jefferys as President, and Mr. W. W. Frazier, Jr., as Secretary.

A report of the Special Committee approving the transfer of the property of Trinity Church, Buckingham, to the Church Foundation.

Approved the report of the Bishop concerning the establishment of the Sunday School at Brookline on a new tract of land to which the school was moved.

Declined to accept the Dorothea Emlen bequest of Penllyn property because it was not provided with a sustaining endowment.

Consented to the consecration of the Rev. Benjamin Martin Washburn, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Newark; of the Very Rev. Ralph Ernest Urban, to be Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of New Jersey; of the Right Rev. Frank Whittington Creighton, S.T.D., as Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Long Island; of the Venerable Archie William Noel Porter, Ph.D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Sacramento.

Considered at length the sacerdotal relations of S. Mary's Church, Hamilton Village, Philadelphia.

Regretfully accepted the resignation of Mr. William White as a Trustee of the Christmas Fund, and upon motion Mr. Frederick R. Drayton was elected to fill the vacancy.

The Standing Committee elected the Rev. Henry R. Gummey, S.T.D., to the Board of Triers in place of the Rev. William B. Beach, D.D., deceased.

Received notice of the deposition from the Ministry of Clifford Quentin Johnson, Deacon, of the Diocese of Ohio, for causes not affecting his moral character.

Approved of the change of the By-Laws of the Church of the Holy Innocents, Tacony.

Received from the Vestry of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, an invitation to hold the Convention of 1933 in the Church of Holy Trinity, and accepting with the thanks of the Bishop and Standing Committee therefor.

Received and approved the request from the Church of the Saviour in the matter of placing a mortgage of eleven thousand dollars ($11,000) on the Rectory.

Received notice from the Bishop of the resignation of the Rev. S. M. Holden as Examining Chaplain and the appointment of the Rev. Richard T. Lyford to the place thus made vacant.

Received papers and copy of the charter from S. John's Church, Cynwyd, requesting the permission to the placing of a mortgage of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) on the Church property and acceding thereto with the caution that the mortgage they placed should be arranged to pay off within a period of five years, and reluctantly granting the permission contrary to the long-held rule concerning the placing of mortgages upon consecrated property.

Received charter union Christ Church, Germantown, and S. Michael's, Germantown. Referred the charter and proposal to Special Committee of Standing Committee on Charters, and on receipt this committee's favorable report upon motion unanimously approved.

Nominated the following gentlemen to fill three vacancies in the Board of Trustees of Clergy Daughters' Fund: Messrs. Geo. W. Pepper, Jr., Thos. S. Gates, Jr., C. Jared Ingersoll.

Received with regret the resignation of Mr. Henry W. Platt as Treasurer City Mission, and nominated for election Mr. Langhorn Bullitt Dick to fill this post.

Approved application S. Stephen's Church, Bridesburg, to permit amendment their By-law providing for election of Vestrymen in January.

Recorded approval of the Bishop for the proposed mortgage on S. John's Church, Cynwyd.

During the year the Standing Committee approved of the admission as Candidates for Holy Orders 17 gentlemen, whose names follow:

APPENDIX E

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the Year 1932

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the year 1932, audited, is submitted herewith.

It is gratifying to report that the Diocese not only paid its promised expectation of $200,000 to the National Council, but sent in addition $20,999.50, principally Whitsunday Offering, to assist in meeting an anticipated deficit of the National Council for 1932.

The Diocese also met its obligations in full, and had $85.82 to spare, which reduced the deficit carried over from 1931 from $15,053.19 to $14,967.37. Although the Parishes and Missions fell considerably behind last year in their normal givings on the quota, this loss was more than made up by special gifts through the Diocesan Contributors' Fund.

I desire again to call special attention to the comparatively few Parish and Mission treasurers who are sending in their missionary money monthly. It is impossible for the Diocese to pay its monthly proportion of such funds to the National Council, and it cannot meet its own obligations in the Diocese without borrowing money to do so, unless the Parishes and Missions send their missionary money in monthly. The following table will show how churches remitted their missionary monies to the Treasurer's office during the past year:

Number of Parishes and Missions Remitting per Annum	Number of Remittances per Annum

The Treasurer and the Assistant Treasurer desire again to express their grateful appreciation to Messrs. Drexel and Company for the continuation of the advantageous arrangements whereby a credit to a limited amount has been extended, and to the Parishes and Missions and the Woman's Auxiliary, as well as other financial organizations of the Diocese for their coöperation, and to the financial staff in the Treasurer's office for its efficient and faithful service throughout the year.

APPENDIX F

Report of the Executive Council

(1) There have been few darker years financially in the history of this country than the year covered by this Report. Things looked exceedingly gloomy with bank failures and business at such a low ebb before the year began, and they did not brighten during the succeeding months.

Great faith was needed by the Bishop, the Chairman, Dean Shreiner, and the Vice-Chairman, Mr. Spencer Ervin, and their loyal co-workers, to start the Diocesan Contributors' Fund in such times, asking for $100,000, the balance needed for the Diocese, and the missionary work of the National Church. Prophesies of failure were many and outspoken.

The result of this venture of faith was receipts of $94,-$554.54, enabling the Diocese to meet all its bills and commitments; to pay the National Council its Expectation of $200,000, with $20,999.50 in addition toward the Emergency Appeal; and to close its books with a balance of $85.82.

Many unforeseen things happened as they always do when faith is the motive. Persons who had been ignorant before learned about the needs of the Diocese and the whole Church. They added their contributions. And who would have supposed that a great parish like S. Mark's would have been willing in such times to give its entire Easter Offering ($8,100) to this Fund! The Clergy, who give to every good cause, should be proud of the fact that $8,079 was given by them.

A new thing happened to the Episcopate. For the first time in a great many years, the Bishop of Pennsylvania was freed from a heavy burden at Christmas time and did not have to spend the Sacred Season in efforts to collect money for a deficit.

(2) The Commission on Recruiting for the Ministry has tried to have personal contact with every applicant for assistance.

(3) The Diocese should consider very seriously the recommendations of the Department of Religious Education.

(4) The Department of Publicity has completed the Scrap Book Index. This important work of twelve volumes of Church History from the newspapers will increase in value as the years go by. At present, they are often consulted for parish and diocesan events.

The three Church Extension Fund Calls have brought in $7,580.50.

(5) On January 1, 1933, all diocesan salaries were cut 10 per per cent except those of missionaries receiving the minimum. The Bishop requested that his salary be reduced 20 per cent.

(6) The Field Secretary again wishes to express his thanks to the Clergy for the pulpits opened, and the many other invitations extended, to deliver the Missionary Message: and the courtesies received in their churches and their homes. For this brotherly kindness he is very grateful.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

The death of Dean Caley, for thirteen years Chairman of the Department of Missions, Dean of the Convocation of North Philadelphia and later Dean of the Convocation of Germantown, was the greatest loss the Department has sustained for many years. In 1893 Dr. Caley came to Philadelphia and spent the rest of his life here. During those forty years he became one of the most beloved and outstanding Clergymen of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

He was always interested in the Missionary Work of the Church: and during the later years of his life, the Missions of the Diocese were his major diocesan interest: and it is difficult to express adequately how much that work owes to his keen energy and untiring devotion. He was intimately associated with the problems and progress of many individual Missions of the Diocese. His leadership and, even more, his bright genial and affectionate companionship are sorely missed in the Department of Missions.

His warm affection and his personal charm, which drew friends to him and bound them to him, have enshrined him in the hearts of many thousands of the Communicants of this Church in the United States.

The Department has suffered another loss in the retirement of Archdeacon Phillips, who served this Diocese for fifty-six years. The work of the Archdeacon during these fifty and six years in the sacred Ministry has brought blessings to many souls, not only in this city but throughout this Country.

Nearly every institution for the betterment of Colored People in this city, that has been started during the past fifty years, has had Archdeacon Phillips either among its Founders or he has had some important part in its beginning and development. He is, at present, the President of the Board of the Mercy Hospital; and also President of the Board of Managers of the Convalescent Home for Colored Women, the only institution of its kind in this state.

He has been most active in the growth and development of the missionary work of the Church among his own people. The Chapel of S. Simon the Cyrenian was begun by Dr. Phillips forty years ago. S. Augustine and S. Christopher, in North Philadelphia, S. Cyprian and S. Monica, in West Philadelphia, and the Mission of the Holy Spirit, South Philadelphia, all had their start under his direction and oversight.

At a testimonial and thanksgiving Service held in his honor, words of congratulation were spoken by Clergymen of our own Church from many parts of the United States, by representatives of the Denominational Churches of this city; also by the Press and the Professions, whom Dr. Phillips has served so well. The Department wishes for this faithful servant many years of usefulness and happiness.

There were eight meetings of the Department during the year when the Deans made their reports; and the work among the foreign-born and the colored people was considered.

The first unit of the buildings of the parish of the Messiah, which had combined with S. Matthew's Mission, Oxford Circle, was completed and opened for worship on Palm Sunday.

A fine lot was purchased and the Bishop broke ground for the building of S. Faith's Mission, Brookline.

The contract was let and the ground broken for a small parish house at Trinity Mission, Solebury, in Bucks County.

The work at Willow Grove has grown so large that the Convocation of Norristown has asked the Department to help with equipment. Something should be done at this strategic place.

In June, S. James' Church, Philadelphia, relinquished the work at S. Elisabeth's. The Bishop and the Department provided funds for the salaries of the Clergy for the balance of the year. The Rev. Franklin Joiner and a Committee have been asked by the Bishop to care for this missionary work.

S. Monica's, 42nd and Woodland Avenue, which had been closed when the Colored congregation moved to 45th and Haverford Avenue, was re-opened in December. The attendance has been very gratifying. At present, it is called Old S. Monica's.

The Department elected Dean Collins, Chairman, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dean Caley; and welcomed Dean Eder, of the Convocation of Germantown.

Archdeacon Bullitt reports: "The work among the foreign-born has, of course, been hampered by the lack of employment among those attending our missions. Very few have any employment. The result has been that the four Polish Missions show a falling off in the average attendance at Services, and in the amount of the Offerings. The former is due to the want of shoes and proper clothing, and to the fact that the Poles always wish to be able to make an Offering when attending a Service. That this loss in attendance was very slight shows that these missions are reaching more people than before.

"The work at both the Italian Missions has shown growth. At S. Mary of the Annunciation, the new chapel has proved how much it was needed, both the English and the Italian Services being attended by numbers that could not have been accommodated in the former chapel. Mr. Biagini, during this winter, is keeping the recreation room in the basement open from one until eleven P. M. so that the boys and men are kept off the street while most of them are unemployed. The need for larger quarters at S. Francis of Assisi became so imperative that in April this mission was moved to rented rooms at 6445 Vine Street. These have been fitted up as a chapel and are filled by congregations almost double the number that could attend the former chapel. Though not two years old, the mission now has seventy communicants and a good sized confirmation class under instruction. That the Offerings at both these missions are slightly smaller than a year ago is easily understood when we realize that the average of those earning anything is no more than three persons out of thirty families.

"I wish to express my admiration for the way in which the five Clergymen and Miss Deane, working in these missions, have given of themselves and their small incomes to help the destitute and to maintain the morale of these people.

"The Sunday School, as well as all the work, at S. John's House is being well done under the leadership of Deaconess Young."

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

In April, 1932, the Department of Religious Education suffered a very great loss in the resignation of its director, the Rev. Frederick E. Seymour. The splendid advance in religious education in this Diocese in recent years is due almost entirely to his fine work. The Department is truly grateful to him for the service he rendered. It deeply appreciates his learning and general competence and above all his Christ-like spirit in every relationship while Director of Religious Education in this Diocese. For six years he labored at his post and his record is one of which to be proud. The Diocesan Normal School, the Library of the Department, the use of Room 30 and other phases of the work have prospered under his leadership. Throughout the Diocese his influence will long be felt because many individual leaders have gained through him a new and glorious vision of their high calling as religious educators. His co-workers in the Department deem it a privilege to have been associated with him.

In September the Department was fortunate in securing the services of Miss Elizabeth P. Frazier as Field Worker, primarily for Church Schools. Miss Frazier is well qualified, and from the moment she assumed her duties has proved invaluable. She has been loaned to parishes for three and four week periods and has surveyed and assisted a number of Church Schools. Many individual leaders have come to her for help and she has taken part in numerous meetings.

In the office, Miss Gertrude Brodhead has continued capably as Secretary. The office has been open daily from 9 to 4.30 and on Saturdays from 9 to 12, except in the summer months.

The gratitude of the Department is also due to the Rev. Charles E. Tuke, D.D., for his seven years of wise leadership as chairman. His resignation was accepted with regret in June, and the Department was reorganized with the Rev. Louis W. Pitt as chairman and a membership of some thirty-eight persons. The Secretary, the Rev. T. Leslie Gossling, also resigned at the time and the Rev. J. Jarden Guenther was elected to serve in his place. The membership has increased slightly and was divided into five commissions. An Executive Committee was formed with Miss Lily Cheston as chairman. The Department met monthly, except in July and August, on the third Monday of the month.

The Commission on Adults, with the Rev. L. C. Lewis, Ph.D., as chairman until June, and then with Mr. Wm. O. Easton as chairman, has been studying the situation. The Woman's Auxiliary has been represented on this commission. A special committee worked to promote attendance at summer conferences by holding a supper meeting, providing scholarships and disseminating information about the conferences.

The Commission on Church Schools, with Miss Lily Cheston as chairman, has been especially active since Miss Frazier began her field work. Members of this commission have been called upon to take part in leading district and parish teachers' meetings. Church School Leaders' Conferences have been held at the Church House on the following subjects: In January, "Lent in the Church Schools"; in April, "Worship and Equipment"; in June, "How to Choose and Use Materials"; in December, "Parents and the Church School." In March a simple questionnaire was sent out to the Church Schools and by this means useful information was gained from some 63 schools. The Christmas Box, the Advent Offering for the Bishop's Bricks Fund and the Lenten Offering have been promoted by this commission. The annual children's Service for the Presentation of Offerings was held simultaneously in seven sections of the Diocese on Sunday afternoon, May 18th. The offerings were presented symbolically in a dramatic service entitled "The Talents." Much credit belongs to Miss Mary Simms for her work in preparing the groups which took part. For years Miss Simms has worked to improve the quality of religious drama, and thanks to her efforts the Diocese has an excellent library of religious plays and pageants. The Commission has met monthly and has been studying various phases of Church School work. Many consultations have been held with individual leaders in and out of regular office hours, curricula planned and methods and materials recommended.

The Commission on Students, with the Rev. John K. Shryock, Ph.D., as chairman and the Rev. Howard Fulweiler as vice-chairman, has been active in developing contacts between college pastors and home parishes. Members of the Commission have visited student groups and helped with student work in a number of local parishes. Active work is also being done by local rectors, or those designated, in the colleges and schools at Bryn Mawr and Swarthmore, at Haverford College, at West Chester State Teachers' College and among the colored students at the Teachers' College at Cheney, at Lincoln University and at the Downingtown Industrial School.

Nineteen hundred and thirty-two was marked very pleasantly by the coming of the Rev. W. Brooke Stabler as Chaplain of the University of Pennsylvania. After twenty-five years of services as the Episcopal Student Pastor in the Christian Association of the University of Pennsylvania the Rev. John R. Hart, Jr., Ph.D., resigned. The Rev. Arthur F. McKenny was appointed to take his place. Arrangements also have been made for Mr. McKenny to do some work at Temple University.

The Commission on Teacher Training, with the Rev. William N. Parker as chairman until June, and then with the Rev. Frederick E. Seymour as chairman, directed the thirteenth year of the Diocesan Normal School with two semesters of ten sessions each. It conducted the 62nd Annual Church School Institute, held at Holy Apostles Church on October 3rd. The Institute was on the subject "Knowing Your Pupils" and proved of real value to many leaders.

The Commission on Young People, with the Rev. John R. Hart, Jr., Ph.D., as chairman until June, and then with the Rev. Leicester C. Lewis, Ph.D., as chairman, had a busy year. The young people of the Diocese have their own diocesan organization and during 1932 provided a diocesan class for the training of parish leaders. Other diocesan activities included a devotional day in Lent, a corporate Communion on Whitsunday, a picnic in June, a dinner of parish presidents in October and a dance in December. A news sheet is circulated and much help is given to parish groups by the diocesan officers.

Recommendations. The religious growth of our children, young people, students, leaders and other adults must be nurtured with constantly improving educational methods and materials. The Department firmly believes that the work of religious education in this great Diocese demands trained and highly qualified leadership, and that only for a short time can the Diocese afford to be without a Director of Religious Education. Therefore the Department recommends that the post of Director be filled as soon as possible.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE AND INSTITUTIONS

The Department of Christian Social Service, in a sense, is a unique one, not only in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, but among social service departments in the Church. Composed of men and women deeply concerned in social welfare, either officially or as volunteers, it brings to bear on social problems a trained and sympathetic judgment that gives its pronouncements weight, both with the public and with those in authority. In addition its visitations to institutions, Church and public, are helpful alike to those responsible for their maintenance as well as to the Department and the Diocese.

Since the present membership of the Department took office, June 20, 1932, meetings have been held on the fourth Monday of every month, except in July and August. The average attendance has been high. All were held in the Church House, except for one in Christ Church House and one in the Deaconess Training School. The Chairman and Secretary have been present at every meeting.

Among the more important activities to be noted are:

The Department urged the Governor to call a special session of the Legislature to deal with unemployment relief and took an active interest in the crisis, and through a special committee, of which the Rev. Percy R. Stockman was Chairman, has co-operated with the committee of the Clergy in the actual administration of certain phases of relief.

In the Fall, the Department considered problems of bad housing in the "Band Box Area" of Philadelphia. At a meeting at Christ Church House, the Housing Bills introduced in the Special Session were described and discussed by Senator William Hunsicker and Mr. Kenneth M. Day.

Arrangements have been made by the Department for the Rev. Dr. John Rathbone Oliver, of Baltimore, to make three addresses in the Spring, before the Clerical Brotherhood and the Department.

The Department also studied provisions in Philadelphia for the care of the aged, and devoted a whole meeting to a full and sympathetic consideration of work for dependent, neglected and delinquent children carried on by various institutions and agencies belonging to the Church.

The Department entertained the Rt. Rev. Frank W. Sterrett, D.D., Bishop of Bethlehem and Chairman of the Social Service Commission of the Province of Washington, at a luncheon in January. It was attended by Bishop Taitt and a large and representative group of the Clergy and Church men and women.

Proposed legislation has been considered in detail and with care. Action, some constructive and some critical, has been given as the case required. At the time of the preparation of this report, the Hasty Marriage Bill requiring a lapse of three days between the application and the issuance of a license to marriage, to which the Department has given persistent support, seems likely to pass.

In concluding, the Chairman desires to place on record his sincere appreciation of the faithful attendance and services of the members.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

The Department of Publicity is not limited to the work assigned to it by the Executive Council, but it reaches out to serve every mission and church within the Diocese. It might be called the co-operative department because it tends towards the unification of the "news" and publicity of every department of the Council. It accepts every challenge to serve the Church. Last year it made an investigation and study of publicity through broadcasting over a local station that would give the Diocese of Pennsylvania a national hook-up. The report of the Chairman of the Department was accepted by the Council but the Finance Department was unable to make any appropriation for radio broadcasting.

The Department has furnished photographs, cuts, news items to the religious and secular press. It has given much aid and material to the local parish publications. It is a great problem to assume the responsibility of giving legitimate news to the secular press and feel confident that the papers will publish the facts as given. Through the able management of the Department by Mr. Warnock, this confidence between the Department and the reporters has never been betrayed. It would be of service to the whole Diocese if the clergy and laymen would send news items through the office and not directly to the newspapers—and likewise for the religious press.

The Council rejoices that Mr. Warnock has regained his health sufficiently to give full time to the duties of Director of Publicity. He has not been able to come to the Church House, but he carries on the work from his home. Miss Cairns, who is a part-time assistant to Mr. Warnock, has most efficiently served the Department in every phase of its work.

"The Church News"

Our Diocesan publication, "The Church News," has not escaped the consequences of the depression. For the first time in a number of years it was operated at a deficit, but was able to meet the situation as a result of the surplus it had endeavored to conserve against such a contingency, and therefore was not compelled to seek any Diocesan financial aid. The major cause of the deficit was due to charging off its books a number of uncollectable bills totalling approximately $900 and covering a period of about three years. A considerable number of these accounts were from advertisers who had been forced out of business.

During the past year Mr. Charles H. Clarke, who was one of the founders of the paper and its business manager, died in October of 1932. The Bishop appointed Mrs. Edith Wiegand, a churchwoman, who was Mr. Clarke's assistant for many years, as acting business manager.

The Church Extension Fund

The Department of Missions usually suggests for the Bishop's approval the mission to be the beneficiary of the Extension Call and the Department of Publicity prepares the literature and sends out the appeal. During 1932 three calls were issued, namely, (1) S. Anne's, Willow Grove; (2) Ascension, Rhawnhurst, and (3) S. Faith's, Brookline.

Economic conditions have had some part, no doubt, in the reduction of income from the members, and again death of some members has had also a part. In view of the trying times and the fact that the Diocese and the parishes have had their own troubles, no effort has been made to send out an appeal for new members. The department would appreciate it if any rector would send to the office the names and addresses of communicants who may be interested in Church Extension.

Scrap Book Index

Perhaps one of the most important services which the Department has tried to render during the past year has been completing an indexing of 12 large volumes of scrap books, containing many thousands of newspaper clippings relating to the Episcopal Church which have been published in Philadelphia newspapers. These scrap books represent a collection of clippings covering the entire period from the year 1919, when the Department was organized, until almost the present day. It is probably the first time that any attempt has been made in the Diocese to keep such a record and to provide an index that will enable one to refer to many more or less important events in the Church's history. It is also a question whether any Diocese in the Church has such a record, and your Chairman and the members of the Department feel it represents a work of considerable importance which will be of increasing value as the years go by and the work is continued. All important events in the life of the Church in the Diocese and at large between 1919 and the year 1932 are appropriately indexed.

USE OF THE CHURCH HOUSE

Assignment of rooms in the Church House for meetings and the maintenance of a schedule for all meetings is one of the duties of the Department. In 1932, 511 meetings were held. The available rooms in the Church House are limited, and it is embarrassing for the Department when arrangements are not made in advance for a designated room. Of course this situation does not arise with organizations meeting regularly. The Department appreciates the co-operation of all using the Church House and it hopes that the day will come where the present building can be made more serviceable.

COMMISSION ON RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY

The Commission on Recruiting for the Ministry reports having held four meetings during the year 1932, with most of the members present at each meeting.

It has been our aim to come to know personally each student for the Ministry who received aid from the Diocese and to keep in closer contact with them. To accomplish this end, the students were assigned to the members of the Commission and by personal interviews, or in a few necessary cases by correspondence, close contacts were made. Likewise the students were asked to make regular reports and the scholastic standing of each one ascertained. Notice was given that a certain standard must be maintained in order to gain further grants. All this brought about a closer acquaintance with the students and their needs and ability, and also gave the members of the Commission a better understanding of how to help and to appreciate the worth of the young men.

Upon the advice of the Budget Committee, a plan was devised to make our expenditures fit in with the present financial conditions. It was felt unwise to drop any of the present recipients of grants or to reduce the amounts, but it was decided not to accept any new applicants until such time as the income of the Diocese warranted a larger award for this work. In the meantime, as students graduate from the seminaries and none are awarded their grants, a considerable saving will ensue to the diocesan treasury. And since there is an over supply of Clergy in the Church at the present time, no harm is being done to the propagation of the Ministry.

During the past year the Commission made grants to 28 candidates and postulants of the Diocese, at an expenditure of $4,825. No student received over $200 for the year.

FIELD DEPARTMENT

1. The Field Department arranged the details of the Whitsunday Offering, sending data about the need of the Offering to the Clergy. The Bishop's letter about this Deficiency Appeal was printed at the request of the Clergy and 10,071 copies were sent to Rectors; also 18,345 special offering envelopes.

2. At the June meeting of the Council, the Department organized by electing the Rev. N. B. Groton, Chairman, as the Rev. M. E. Peabody, who had served for a number of years, did not feel able to continue. The Rev. N. B. Groton, feeling the pressure of work too heavy, the Bishop nominated and the Department elected the Rev. C. E. Snowden, Rector of the Memorial Church of S. Paul, Overbrook, and previously Executive Secretary of the National Council.

3. The Department held three Supper Conferences for Clergy and Laity during the month of October. These conferences were held in the Penn Athletic Club and were addressed by the Rev. B. H. Reinheimer, D.D., Executive Secretary of the National Field Department. The attendance (nearly 300 at the first Conference) was very gratifying and the popularity of these meetings indicate that other similar meetings should be held in the future.

Two Missionary Conferences for the Clergy and Laity were held at the Church Farm School, Glen Loch, Pa. There were 108 Clergymen and 62 Laymen present. The attendance of Laymen was not encouraging and it is the opinion of the Department that these meetings should be discontinued and others more convenient in time and location planned.

Some of the important findings of the Clergy were:

(a) "That this conference refers to the Executive Council of the Diocese the continued necessity for a study of the calculation of the quotas assigned the Parishes and Missions with a view to their possible re-adjustment in relation to the giving ability of the Parishes and Missions.

(b) "That we acknowledge with gratitude the beneficial results of the Diocesan Contributors' Fund.

(c) "That the statement presented by Bishop Taitt, relating to the institutions of the Diocese, be brought to the attention of the Parishes of the Diocese."

Some of the findings of the Laymen were:

(a) "Having in mind the impression made by a two-day conference for Laymen conducted last Spring at the College of Preachers in Washington and recognizing the need for educating our laity in the history, organization and worship of the Church, we suggest the possibility of organizing similar conferences in Philadelphia. We believe that it should be possible to make up successive groups of, say, thirty laymen each to meet on Fridays and Saturdays at a place to be arranged. We recommend this idea to the Diocesan Department of Religious Education and we bespeak the interest of the parish clergy.

(b) "We believe that the Convocations of this Diocese have a great opportunity for interesting laymen and for promoting through the laity the missionary work of the Diocese and the solution of its financial problems. In this connection we call attention to the success of the system now in operation in the Convocation of Chester, by which the Dean has the assistance of a Laymen's Committee of seventeen to deal with the quotas and expectations of the parishes in the Convocation, and an Executive Committee of Convocation composed of seven laymen and seven clergy to prepare the program for the meetings of Convocation.

(c) "We hope that the Church Club will again conduct a series of motorbus trips to Diocesan institutions and that the parish clergy will urge their laymen to take advantage of the opportunity to learn of the important work which these institutions represent. First-hand knowledge of it will prove of great help to those who engage in future Every-Member Visitations.

(d) "Too many vestry meetings are devoted solely to routine matters of finance and maintenance. We respectfully suggest to the Clergy the value and importance of providing also at these meetings some account of what the parish is doing for the community and for the Church at large."

4. The Department has conducted a Missionary Speakers' Bureau supplying parishes and missions with speakers about the work in the different Fields. The demand for missionary literature, from the parishes, showed a large increase. Last year 36,398 pieces of missionary literature were sent out by the Field Secretary. This year, 65,298 were asked for by the parishes.

5. Due to the depression, only one Summer Volunteer went out from this Diocese. This one volunteer, however, did excellent work under Bishop and Mrs. Abbott in the mountains of Kentucky. General interest in the Summer Volunteer Work is growing throughout the Diocese.

6. The Executive Council at the January meeting promised the National Council $200,000.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

The Church Properties Fire Insurance Corporation has appraised all the mission properties in the Diocese. The Insurance Committee of the Diocese with the co-operative assistance of the appraisers of the Insurance Corporation has carefully revised the Insurance schedules of mission properties in the Diocese so as to adjust them to the present day level values which has resulted in many cases in a substantial reduction in the amount of insurance carried and a consequent refund of overpaid premium. The Insurance Department is now issuing a perpetual policy, the premiums being due every three months.

At the close of the fiscal year, which ended December 31, 1932, the records of the Diocese show the amount of parish and mission properties of the Diocese insured by the Church Properties Fire Insurance Corporation total $2,996,094.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

The Treasurer's report clearly outlines the financial results attained during the year 1932 which were very gratifying.

The Department holds monthly meetings regularly two days preceding the meeting of the Executive Council. These meetings are very well attended. Much thought and study is given to every phase of the many problems affecting finances of the Diocese, and more particularly to the balancing of the budget by reducing expenses to fit the anticipated income, and by setting up such machinery as is necessary to provide additional income through the Diocesan Contributors' Fund.

THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The past year has been one of real progress and accomplishment in our Convocation.

One new Mission was started. One new Church was built and the Parish organized. One of the oldest Churches in the Diocese was completely renovated. The oldest Mission in the Convocation has taken on new life. One new Chapel of a city Parish was built and one Parish built a new Church, and all of this was accomplished in a year that was admittedly difficult.

The spirit and enthusiasm of our people, back of all these projects, plus the consecration of the Clergy, is responsible for the result obtained.

S. Faith's Mission, Brookline.—Until a year ago, Haverford Township was without an Episcopal Church. When I was elected Dean to fill the unexpired term of Rev. Benjamin N. Bird, I was asked at once by a group of people living in Brookline, to do all that I could for a Mission in a township of some ten thousand people. After studying the matter and getting the consent of the adjoining Rectors, a Mission was started in a public school in this district. The Rev. William Powell, a teacher in the Church Farm School and Assistant at S. Paul's, West Whiteland, was asked to take charge of the services at 4 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, on January 10th, 1932. The next Sunday the children were gathered together for the first session of the Church School.

Mr. Powell has been most successful in this work, so much so that he and his people approached the Bishop with the hope that a building might be erected. The Committee on New Places of Worship in the Convocation selected the best possible site, situated at the corner of Boulevard and Allston Road. The Bishop designated the Fall Call of the Church Extension Fund, as well as the Annual Call of the Bishop's Brick Fund, for the benefit of S. Faith's Mission.

On November 10th, ground was broken for this building, and I am happy to say the first service will be held in the new building early in February. The building and equipment will be entirely paid for, and I am hopeful that the mortgage will be reduced to $6,000 on the lot.

S. George's, Oakmont.—S. George's Church, the Nevil Memorial, was consecrated on Monday, April 4th, 1932. This beautiful gothic structure, one of the most beautiful in the Diocese, was given, with an endowment of $250,000, in memory of the parents of Mr. George Nevil.

Bishop Taitt appointed the Rev. Frederick E. Seymour as the Vicar. Mr. Seymour has gathered to S. George's a splendid group of people, who are taking on the responsibility of organized Parish life. We believe this Parish will fill a very definite need for the locality in which it is situated.

S. John's, Concord.—The first S. John's was built over two hundred years ago and was a Mission of S. Paul's, Chester. The present building is the third building to have been erected. It has stood for nearly one hundred years and needed renovation, without and within.

Mr. Bellis and his people undertook the work in earnest, and have made a beautiful Church of S. John's once more. A new road from the Baltimore Pike to the Church has been laid for a distance of over one hundred yards. The Rector and Committee are very happy with the result.

Trinity, Collingdale, was organized about fifty years ago. For the last ten years the Rev. Henry Davies, Ph.D., has been the Missionary in Charge. With his appointment to the staff of the City Mission, the Bishop appointed the Rev. Harry Kaufmann to Trinity.

With the enthusiasm of youth he has taken hold of the Mission and has accomplished wonders. The organizations are thriving, the services are well attended, and the Mission is in the process of becoming a Parish.

S. Michael's, Yeadon, is a Chapel under the control of S. Mark's, Philadelphia. Mrs. John A. Brown, Jr., gave the new building as a memorial, and this Chapel is taking care of our Church people in this rapidly growing section. The Vicar is the Rev. Frank Williamson, and he is doing a splendid work.

Trinity, Swarthmore.—Trinity, Swarthmore, completed their new Church building early in the Winter, and a very splendid building it is. Our Church people in Swarthmore, as well as many students of Swarthmore College, are flocking to the Services Sunday after Sunday. The Rev. J. Jarden Guenther is building solid foundations and has endeared himself to the whole community.

The Laymen's Committee of our Convocation is continuing its good work, and is largely responsible for the missionary enthusiasm of the Convocation. This committee has conferences with Vestries and Rectors, and as a result the self-apportionment of $74,000 for the Missionary cause was fully met.

I am truly grateful to be able to present to the Bishop of the Diocese this report, not only for the progress of our Convocation, but for that which must be evident to anyone knowing us, the Christian coöperation of our Clergy and Laymen.

CHARLES W. SHREINER, Dean

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The two meetings, Spring and Fall, in the year 1932 of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation of Chester were well attended, with an average attendance of over 300 present, and inspiration for the future year was both given and received.

May 19 the Convocation met at S. Giles, Stonehurst, in the beautiful new Church and Parish building.

Mrs. Albert Hill told of the encouraging work among the isolated, and Miss Dickson told of the progress and courage given to our unemployed women in Philadelphia.

Bishop Taitt gave his message at luncheon, speaking of the opportunity at these meetings for us as witnesses to go forth to tell others of the work of the Auxiliary.

The speaker of the day was Rev. Dr. Trapnell, member of the National Council, who spoke on the Every Member Canvass.

On October 20 the Auxiliaries met at S. James Mission, Prospect Park. A new and helpful feature this year has been the choir at the Communion Service.

Mrs. Shreiner announced that Mrs. J. F. Bullitt had accepted the office of Educational Secretary, and is planning to have a Secretary in each Convocation. Mrs. Hill has organized her work into departments similar to the National Council.

The Bishop told of his trip to Japan and of the outward and visible signs towards Christian Service at S. Luke's and S. Margaret's. The result of gifts from the women of Pennsylvania.

This meeting was one of deep inspiration, arranged by our President to help us feel and understand what is going on in our midst, both in the Diocese and Convocation. The organization of the Daughters of the King was explained, also our Church Mission of Help and its great need in the city of Philadelphia.

The afternoon speaker was Dean Shreiner, stressing the two-fold nature of a Dean's work, Spiritual and Financial. Our interest and coöperation were asked in the new Mission to be started in Haverford Township. We were urged to uphold our Bishop's hands by individual gifts to the Diocese, when possible, through the channel known as the "Diocesan Contributors Fund."

SARAH R. THOMAS, Secretary.

MARGARET C. MEREDITH,
Treasurer

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

During the year 1932, the Convocation sustained a heavy loss in the death of its Dean, the Reverend Doctor Llewellyn N. Caley. Many resolutions of sympathy and appreciation have been passed by the many Boards and Committees on which he served, and he deserved everything that has been said in his honor. We of the Convocation over which he presided feel that there was no one who knew the missionary problems of the Diocese more intimately, and no one who gave himself more generously or indefatigably in working out their solution. We miss him much.

During the year we also lost by death the Reverend Leslie F. Potter, of S. Mark's Church, Frankford, and the Reverend Amos Goddard, of S. Luke's Church, Newtown. Both were good men, doing good work. We miss them also.

In spite of these losses, the work of the Convocation has gone steadily on. On every hand there is reported a renewed interest in the things of the Spirit, manifesting itself in better attendance at the public services of the Church and in growing Church Schools.

To the already heavily burdened leader of the mission work in Bucks County, the Reverend W. D. Parker, has been added the care and oversight of Trinity Church, Buckingham, whose Rector retired early in the year. The Reverend James C. Gilbert, of Hulmeville, has been ably assisting Mr. Parker, and with the help of a Lay Reader they have been able to accomplish an astonishingly large amount of Church work and to do it well. We rejoice in their youth and in their zeal.

At Solebury the new Parish House, a Gothic gem—beautiful in proportion and lovely in design—is rapidly approaching completion. This hall was made possible by gifts from the Church Extension Fund, by a grant by Bishop Taitt from the Diocesan Campaign Fund, by gifts from several Church Building Funds, by money raised by the women of our Convocation, and by funds raised by the people of Solebury themselves. It will be ready for dedication soon, and we look forward to its being of great worth in the lives of the people of the community.

The Church of the Messiah at Oxford Circle is growing rapidly. There have been extra-large Confirmation classes, and the growth attests the wisdom of those in authority who chose the present site and brought about the removal of an old church to a new location. This principle of consolidating old parishes of untoward neighborhoods, where they are no longer needed, with new missions in promising communities where they are sorely needed, has already vindicated its wisdom at Oxford Circle, and should set us to face the question whether we should not bring to pass other consolidations of like nature. Much thought is being given at the present time to this principle, and we hope to make for greater efficiency of diocesan work by using it in several places.

S. Gabriel's, Feltonville, for many years under the leadership of the Rev. William T. Metz, has continued to forge ahead in spite of the economic distress all about it. This Mission has long been one of the bright spots in the extension work of the Diocese, no Mission having done more to help itself than S. Gabriel's. In the immediate neighborhood of our property there are several fine, well-planned houses for sale. If we could purchase one of them now for use as a Rectory, we should do well. We could buy for much less than we shall have to pay several years hence. We shall have to buy a house for the Priest there some day—and it would do much to strengthen the work of the Mission if now, while it is growing up, we had a Rectory almost next door to the Church building, to spread its fine influence over the congregation and to spare the Priest in charge much needless running to and fro. We commend this to your consideration.

S. Andrew's, Somerton, a small Mission, is in a section of Philadelphia that is bound to grow by leaps and bounds as soon as times grow normal again. When that time comes it will be good for us to be there, ready to welcome the newcomers to our well-established work. Meanwhile we can do little more than mark time, taking good care of the small group already under our charge. We are carrying on a sure and worth-while work, although badly handicapped by the need of a larger building in which to house the Church School.

Ascension, Rhawnhurst, has had a most difficult year, due to the fact that many newcomers in the neighborhood have lost their homes and have had to move away, just as they were becoming interested in the work of the Mission. The small nucleus that has been left to carry on until times change again and a new group moves back into the empty houses on every side, has had a great deal of trouble whenever it stormed because the water has backed up and inundated the floors of the basement room that they use for all purposes. To remedy this condition the Dean called in the architect and engineers, who traced the source of the trouble and prescribed the building of French drains. But the people of the Mission have no money to pay for this. So the Woman's Aid came to the rescue and tentatively promised to raise the money necessary to pay for the improvement. We hope that by the time this report is in print it will no longer be necessary for the members of the Mission to bail out the water in hand buckets, so that the children of the Church School may use the building without getting their feet wet. The courage of these fine people at Rhawnhurst in the face of their many difficulties has been splendid.

Although Bucks County as a whole has fared better than most communities during the last year from a financial standpoint, nevertheless the manufacturing centers have been suffering severely. This has been particularly true of Morrisville. Our work there has gone on uninterruptedly, but the goal that we had set for it—that of becoming self-supporting—seems as far off as ever. S. Andrew's, Yardley; S. Paul's, Edgely, and Emmanuel, Quakertown, have gone on much as usual, although the clergyman who has charge of Edgely reports more distress and poverty there than we have heard of anywhere else in the Diocese. S. Wilfred's, Dolington, has felt particularly the loss of the Rev. Mr. Goddard, who nurtured it lovingly; indeed, it was on his way to service at Dolington that he had his fatal attack.

At last we are getting busy at West Oak Lane. Last summer a careful survey was made of the neighborhood, and the results were so promising that we decided to get busy at once. In this year's budget of the Diocese a small amount is set aside for experimental work there, and, within a short time now, work will be under way in this new and fast-growing section. We ask your prayers for God's guidance to those who are beginning the work.

No missionary report would be complete without due recognition of the fine work that has been done by women. It is particularly so in the Convocation of Germantown. They have always been heart and soul in every movement for the advance work of the Church. We call your attention to the report of their work for the year 1932, and we give God thanks for them.

During the year the Parishes and Missions of the Convocation promised for the work of the Diocese and General Church $99,488.34, and during the year they gave $97,473.10, to which should be added special contributions from members of the Convocation to the Diocesan Contributors' Fund, amounting to $40,850.81. For the year 1933, the quota of the Convocation amounts to $90,587.34, of which $88,616.11 has already been pledged.

The spirit existing throughout the Convocation is good, the new Dean having received courtesies and coöperation on every side. Although he has been in office but a few months, he is coming more and more to believe that the strength of a Mission, humanly speaking, depends to a large extent on the type of man in charge of the work. The fact that our Missions in general are reporting real progress would therefore indicate that these men in charge are true men of God, wisely chosen. We commend them to your prayers.

Faithfully yours in Christ, CHARLES EDWARD EDER

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The outstanding feature of the work of the Convocation during 1932 was the development of S. Anne's Mission, Willow Grove. The Sunday School again showed a large increase, and that, with the congregation at the Sunday morning Services, seriously tax the capacity of the present building. The Every Member Canvass in the Fall revealed a great advance in the giving ability of the people, so much so that they pledged to increase the support of their missionary from $300 to $720 per year. On the Feast of the Epiphany, 1933, Mr. George C. Anderson was ordained to the Diaconate; since last June the Dean of the Convocation has been acting as Priest in Charge of the Mission upon the appointment of the Bishop. The Church Extension call in January, 1932, brought in $2,700 for the building fund for a new Parish House; it is sorely needed and we very much hope it may be possible to begin building early in 1933. S. Anne's was included in the Diocesan Campaign Fund for $10,000. It is the only project in this Convocation which has not been completed; and the people of the Mission are now confident of their ability to carry their part of the building expense.

The other Missions of the Convocation have carried on their work remarkably well, considering the difficult conditions under which all work was done the past year. Holy Trinity Mission, Lansdale, and Advent Mission, Hatboro, have again made most generous gifts, considering their resources, to the general missionary work of the Church; and the latter Mission has paid over $1,500, principal and interest, on account of their Parish House debt.

Holy Trinity Mission, Conshohocken, has been particularly hard hit by unemployment, but the people and Missionary are carrying on faithfully and loyally. The future of this work should be carefully studied by the suggested Evaluation Committee of the Executive Council when appointed.

Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, has had one of the largest Confirmation classes in its history, seventeen having been presented to the Bishop. The Sunday School continued to have an enrollment of well over 100.

The Woman's Aid of Convocation again conducted a Garden Party at the Penllyn home of Mrs. E. Druitt Crawford, its active and devoted President, enabling them to make several generous gifts to work in the Convocation, the detail of which appears in the President's and Treasurer's reports, which are appended.

WOMAN'S AID

The Woman's Aid of the Convocation of Norristown is glad to report a successful year. Great interest has been shown by the delegates and the meetings have been very enthusiastic. The "County Fair" was held as usual, the second Saturday in June at Penllyn. We consider it was a success—not only the delicious supper that was served, but also the wares that were sold from the different booths scattered throughout the grounds. From the proceeds we were able to carry on the yearly work; namely, sending the children each Sunday for Church and Church School from "The House of the Holy Child," Ambler, to S. Augustine's Mission in Norristown. The people from "The House of the Holy Child" always help us with the "County Fair." Then we also helped S. Anne's Mission, Willow Grove, and these women also take a great interest in Convocation work in return for what we do for them. At Gulph Mills we were able to put down a good floor (in the little Church) which was greatly needed. Last March, the Woman's Aid of the Convocation took charge of the cloak room at Gimbel's Store on "Episcopal Day for the Blind," under the leadership of Mrs. George Freeman. Mrs. Edward Ingersoll has been appointed by Mrs. Hill as the Field Secretary for the Convocation of Norristown. Her duty is to see that every Auxiliary is 100 per cent. We are looking for a great step forward in our work and are now making many plans for our next year's work.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The Missions of our Convocation have done remarkably well during the past year, notwithstanding the financial problems they have been compelled to face. The Missionaries have shown great courage and faith, and in attendance and gifts the members have proved their loyalty and devotion. Nowhere in the Diocese is there a more difficult situation than in the Kensington and Northeast Section, but we are thankful for all that has been accomplished, and the outlook is good.

Our two Missions for the colored people—S. Christopher's and S. Augustine's—are doing very good work and meeting a great need.

The social service and relief at S. Barnabas' has been remarkably and successfully carried on; the membership is steadily growing and the influence of this Mission is far-reaching. The Rev. Mr. Eastburn has been most generously assisted by the Rectors and members of S. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, and S. Paul's Church, Elkins Park.

The two Polish Missions are holding their own and the Italian Mission is using the new chapel to capacity.

S. Bartholomew's is progressing, and gives evidence of permanent strength, but has serious financial problems.

S. Ambrose's Mission has a large membership and active work, and deserves every possible encouragement; the people are making real sacrifices.

S. George's, Richmond, represents the life work of the Rev. A. J. Arkin, who has inspired and transformed the entire community.

At S. George's, Venango, the Rev. A. H. Hord has continued his wonderful ministry, and the Mission grows as a community center. The people are devoted and enthusiastic.

The Hebrew Christian Synagogue is a small work and must be carried on with quietness and confidence, but it is sowing seed for future growth.

S. John's Settlement House and the Hebrew Christian Synagogue are unique in the Diocese. Not very far apart, in the congested section of the city with a large foreign population, they are accomplishing a distinctive helpful work and should be continued.

At All Souls' Church for the Deaf, the Rev. Henry J. Pulver has succeeded the Rev. Warren M. Smaltz. This has been the only change in personnel during the past year.

We wish to make known our Roll of Honor, and record the names of the devoted men and women who are leading our Church in the Convocation with such outstanding ability and consecration:

Rev. A. J. Arkin ..... S. George's, Richmond
Rev. Arnold H. Hord ..... S. George's, Venango
Deaconess Young ..... S. John's House
Miss Ormsby ..... Hebrew Christian Synagogue
Rev. Robert C. Hubbs ..... S. Ambrose
Rev. Joseph H. Hudson ..... S. Augustine's (Colored)
Rev. James N. Deaver ..... S. Christopher's (Colored)
Rev. Henry J. Pulver ..... All Souls' Church of the Deaf
Rev. Albert W. Eastburn ..... S. Barnabas'
Rev. A. C. Carty ..... S. Bartholomew's
Rev. Silvio Biagini ..... S. Mary of the Annunciation (Italian)
Rev. Edward M. Baczewski ..... Holy Redeemer (Polish)
Rev. Joseph O. Pienionzek ..... Church of the Advent (Polish)

and also the following institutions with their Chaplains:

Rev. R. R. Windley and Mr. George Wilkins ..... Galilee Mission
Rev. Joseph Manuel ..... Episcopal Hospital
Rev. Percy R. Stockman ..... Seamen's Church Institute

The section of the Diocese included in this Convocation presents many problems still unsolved, which call for statesmanship and wide vision. As pointed out in our last report, we are face to face with great changes. Endowments must be used to meet current expenses; and our quotas are therefore increased, while giving ability has decreased. How to meet this changed situation is one of the most serious questions before the Church. In the past it has been necessary for a number of Parishes to move away or combine, and this section of the city can only be held by fewer and stronger Parishes and Missions.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Winfield Scott, the Woman's Aid has rendered great assistance, and the various efforts reached their climax at the annual Lawn Fete held last June at the beautiful and historic home of Mr. Caspar Wistar Haines and his sister, Miss Haines. For this hospitality we are most grateful.

Appended are the reports of the Treasurer of the Convocation and the Woman's Aid, together with the statistics of the Missions which are valuable as records, but the true results can only be estimated in spiritual values.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

In the year that I have been Dean I have taken the opportunity to look over the field. With the facts before you and the many changes that have been going on, one wonders what the future has in store for the Church in South Philadelphia. What is true of the Central City Churches (Philadelphia has left us) is equally true of the Churches in North and South Philadelphia. Yes, it is more true, as the Central City Churches have large endowments to carry on, while most of the Churches in South Philadelphia have little or no guaranteed support.

Many of our people have moved to New Jersey or the suburbs, and we are trying to carry on, realizing that the day will come that something drastic will have to be done. No one questions the fact that we were always overchurched.

The district is becoming more and more foreign or colored. Look at these statistics. There are in or near the city, two hundred and nineteen thousand five hundred ninety-nine colored people, and of these 68,700 live in South Philadelphia. Most of the Churches which minister to these people are poorly located and some of them are badly in need of extensive repairs.

There are in the city 182,368 Italians, and 118,000 of these live in South Philadelphia. We have one work, that of L'Emmanuello, at 16th and Mifflin Streets. No one would dare say we are doing a great deal among the Italians.

As we look over the financial statement for 1932, South Philadelphia made a fair showing. Our quota was $81,875.10. Our expectations amounted to $51,292.51, but we gave $52,428.56.

Towards the Diocesan Contributors' Fund, South Philadelphia gave $15,696.76, and in Specials, $6,873.29. Sum total, $74,999.61. May we do as well in 1933.

The Mission of the Transfiguration continues to minister to the spiritual and material needs of the people in the Mission.

The Rev. Mr. McHenry, Minister in Charge, informs me that nearly every person connected with the Mission is out of work and the receipts consequently are very small.

The Mission of the Holy Spirit is now looked after by a Lay Reader, a Student at the Philadelphia Divinity School. It is not our intention to build up a new small congregation of colored people in South Philadelphia, but simply to give the children some religious instruction. We have an occasional celebration of Holy Communion for the adults. As we have on roll 150 children, it seems advisable to continue this work.

The Italian Mission of L'Emmanuell carries on its work at S. Elisabeth's Church, 16th and Mifflin Streets. The salary of the Missioner ($2,500) has been paid by the Diocese. Miss Eleanor Dean gives considerable of her time to the work, reporting to the Rev. Mr. Bullitt. The old Church of L'Emmanuello has been rented. It is hoped that some day the plant may be sold. In the meantime we are fortunate in having the Church used.

The Woman's Aid, under the Presidency of Mrs. Frederick Fox, had three interesting meetings during the year. The Needlework Guild, started last May, did excellent work during the year.

CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The Missions in this Convocation have prospered during the past year in the face of adverse economic conditions. Attendance at Services and the Church School has kept up to the numbers of the previous year. There has been some falling off in contributions. This was to be expected, and it may become serious as time goes on. Our Missionaries have been faithful and active, and have earned our cordial and generous support. The Rev. Arthur C. Moore has resumed his position as Missionary-in-Charge at S. Cyprian's, Elmwood, and the work has gone forward under his leadership.

A Church School has been established in the building formerly occupied by S. Monica's Mission, at 42nd Street and Woodland Avenue. This is under the direction of the Rev. Richard Bright, Missionary-in-Charge of S. Monica's Mission, 48th Street and Haverford Avenue. The School has an average attendance of over 70 members. The expenses of this work are being met for the present by the parishes within the Convocation. The situation is encouraging, and our first step in extending the work of our Church among the colored people of West Philadelphia seems to be amply justified by the results.

The Dean has received the hearty support of the clergy and laity of the Convocation, including the members of the Woman's Aid. The interest in the work of the Convocation has increased greatly during the past year.

The statistics compiled from the reports of the respective Missions and published in the table appended hereto indicate the scope of the work under this Convocation.

At the Annual Meeting of the Members, held May 11th, 1932, the following gentlemen were elected to the Board to serve for the ensuing three years:

REV. F. C. HARTSHORNE — MR. R. D. BROWN
REV. C. E. TUKE — MR. GEORGE HALL
MR. J. S. NEWBOLD

At a meeting of the Board held October 19th, 1932, accepted the Mary E. R. Tatham Trust of $2,000 for endowment fund of All Souls' Deaf Mute Church.

Accepted Trust of $1,000 for endowment fund of All Souls' Deaf Mute Church, to be known as Rev. Warren M. Smaltz Fund.

Accepted Trust of $500 for S. Andrew's, Yardley, to be known as the Susan Heed Linton Memorial Fund.

Agreed to accept Title to two lots in Brookline, Delaware County, Pennsylvania.

Louis B. Runk was elected a member of the Board to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Geo. Hall.

At a meeting held January 11th, 1933, it was stated by Mr. Runk that the Church Foundation had been appointed substituted Trustee for a Fund of the Church of the Epiphany, Royersford, amounting to $1,000, in place of the Royersford Trust Company, which had closed its doors.

In the matter of the Will of Robert C. Matlack, Deceased, it was agreed, upon the advice of the Chancellor of the Diocese, to settle and compromise the claim of the Church Foundation jointly with the claim of the Polyclinic Hospital with the heirs of said Robert C. Matlack.

At a meeting held April 12th, 1933, the officers were authorized to execute a Deed of Dedication to the County of Montgomery for a strip of ground in front of S. Peter's Church, Weldon.

Agreed to accept Title to Rectory of S. Bartholomew's Church, Wissinoming, subject to a mortgage of $900.

APPENDIX H

Report of the Board of Examining Chaplains

To the Convention:

The Examining Chaplains present herewith a summary of their acts.

During the year we have conducted the following examinations:

Postulants to be admitted Candidates	16
Candidates to be made Deacons	9
Deacons to be ordered Priests	6
	31

This does not include those who have only partially completed the examinations for a stage in their preparation, nor does it include those who have failed in their examinations.

Postulants passed and so reported to the Bishop for admission as Candidates:

Richard Aselford	William J. Barnett
Frederick W. Blatz	Matthew W. Davis
Charles Encelius	M. Mills Garcia
Alfred P. Harrison	James A. Hilton
Robert L. Jacoby	Henry P. Krusen
Leonard J. Sacks	George W. Stewart
John L. Stiffler	William C. Taylor
Robert M. Webster	William Zulch

Candidates for the Diaconate passed and so reported to the Bishop and Standing Committee.

Richard Aselford	George H. Boyd
John A. Cragg	William F. Creighton
Gerald McC. Gardner	Noel L. Murray
Joseph Settle	Francis H. Tetu

F. W. Lickfield

Candidates for the Priesthood passed and so reported to the Bishop and Standing Committee:

Ralph E. Coonrad	Wendell Phillips
Benjamin R. Priest	Frederick C. Trussell
Stanley Le R. Welsh	William A. Wilkins

In addition to these we have examined, at the request of their Bishops, eight men from other Dioceses.

We have recommended to the Bishop six men to be dispensed from the classical Greek required for Admission as a Candidate, but not from the Greek of the New Testament.

The Board offers the following resolutions:

RESOLVED, That the Report of the Examining Chaplains be printed in the JOURNAL.

RESOLVED, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to pay bills incurred by the Examining Chaplains in their work, provided the total amount of such bills does not exceed one hundred and fifty dollars.

GILBERT E. PEMBER, Secretary

APPENDIX I

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese

Since my last report the room occupied by the Registrar on the third floor of the Church House, being needed for other purposes, has been relinquished and another room has been set apart for this purpose on the fourth floor. The latter room is in every respect superior to the one just vacated, as it is quiet, better lighted, and furnishes ample accommodation for our records at the present time, and for others that may be acquired in the future. Shelves for books and pamphlet cases and every convenience for the work done in this office have been provided, and I take this opportunity of expressing my thanks to Mr. William J. Dickson, Custodian of the Church House, who has done everything in his power to make the removal of so large a collection from one room to another as easy and agreeable as possible.

By direction of a Canon, I have at various times obtained possession for the Diocese of the registers of Parishes that have ceased to exist, and for safety have kept them in the fire-proof vault of the Church House, where they have at all times been accessible to persons wishing to examine them. The Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania, a well-known and highly esteemed organization, with headquarters in the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, recently requested permission to borrow these old Parish Registers for the purpose of having photostat copies of them made. The request having been granted by the Bishop, the books were loaned to the Society and the photostat work is now being done. When it is finished, the copies of the Registers will be bound and accurately indexed, and will find a safe depository in the Historical Society, where they will be of great value to genealogical searchers. The Index prepared by the Genealogical Society will be of very great assistance to those who otherwise would be obliged to make a tedious search through the original records, which in some cases are faded and almost illegible. Incidentally, I may mention the fact that the Registers of old Christ Church, S. Peter's and many other Colonial parishes have been copied by the photostat method and are constantly being used by persons who go to the Historical Society for information. Moreover, the Genealogical Society has photostat copies of Registers which are no longer in the possession of the parishes to which they belonged—the original books having been lost or destroyed—so that the Society has rendered a valuable service to the Church in preventing these records from being wholly lost.

In the Bishop's office in the old Church House, 12th and Walnut Streets, there were formerly many boxes containing correspondence of the early Bishops, clergy and laymen of the Diocese. On the removal of the Diocesan Headquarters to the present building, this correspondence was turned over to the Registrar. I have recently been looking over these old letters. After the passage of so many years, they have only an historical value, but many of them are exceedingly interesting, as they give us an insight into the affairs of the Diocese of long ago, and some of these letters might be of value to the historian of the future who writes the annals of this, one of the first, most important and most historic of our Dioceses.

During the past summer I visited the Headquarters of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, in London, England, in order to examine the records relating to the Colonial parishes in Pennsylvania. I was informed that all the Society's records relating to the American Colonial Church had been transcribed and copies were on file in the Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

ARNOLD HARRIS HORD,
Registrar of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

APPENDIX J

Report of Cathedral Chapter

By reasons of the funds available from the bequests of the late Annie V. Watson and the late Martha B. Hay, the Cathedral Chapter on January 27th, 1932, authorized Mr. Frank R. Watson to prepare estimating drawings for the Lady Chapel. When the estimates were secured it was found possible to arrange for the building of the apse, two bays and a portion of an additional bay. These were to be carried forward to a point where, though not entirely completed or embellished, they would be available for use. Accordingly, contracts were made with the H. John Homan Co., General Contractors of Philadelphia, for the construction of the above units, these contracts being duly signed by the Bishop and attested by John J. Collier, Acting Registrar, on June 30, 1932.

The first spade of earth was turned by the Rt. Rev. Francis M. Taitt, S.T.D., on Diocesan Day, June 25, 1932, at a "Ground Breaking" ceremony, the site being blessed and the work of actual construction commenced about the middle of July. Before this event, the total portion of the ground that would be needful for the building thereon of the Cathedral was freed of debt and made a gift to the Cathedral Church of Christ by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frederick Houston. Continuous progress has been made, the work of building having gone forward through the winter as weather conditions have permitted. The building is now sufficiently advanced to give an excellent idea of the scale and character of the work and project.

James M. Niblo,
Acting Registrar

APPENDIX K

The Budget for 1933

Resolution of the Diocesan Convention of 1932 Which Was Adopted:

"Resolved, That the Executive Council be authorized to prepare the Budget for 1933 on the basis of the Budget for 1932, as to form, scope and amount, with such changes as may be necessary to meet the conditions existing in the autumn and the expected income for 1933."

Pursuant to the above resolution of the Diocesan Convention, the Executive Council in October adopted tentatively a budget of $431,763.20, made up of these two items: Our quota for the work of the National Council, $236,000.00, and for the Diocesan Work, $195,763.20.

This total budget was then apportioned in quotas to our parishes and missions. The returns in expectations for 1933 were so very far below the amount of this budget that the Executive Council at its January meeting approved the recommendations of the Budget Committee by cutting the tentative budget to $349;677.48, $175,000.00 for the work of the National Council and $174,677.48 for the work of the Diocese.

The Budget of 1933 does not include the deficit of $15,053.19 carried over from previous years (there was no deficit in 1932), and it does not seem expedient to attempt to raise this deficit at this time.

The detailed budget is submitted herewith.

John E. Hill,
Chairman, Budget Committee

APPENDIX L

Report of the Board of Control of the Diocesan Library

The Library has been kept open during the year and attended by a Librarian who shares her time with the Department of Publicity. In addition to the books consulted in the Library, two hundred and twenty have been in circulation, and through gifts and purchase fifty-two have been added.

The shelves have been cleared of duplicates and useless volumes, which have been sold, thus providing a small fund for the purchase of new books.

A few of the clergy and others have taken membership cards at one dollar a year, and your Board wishes that this movement might become more popular, since it provides almost the only regular method of raising funds for the purchase of new books, and these are practically the only ones which circulate.

The Treasurer reports:

APPENDIX N

Report of the Church Work Among the Deaf

The Church Work Among the Deaf continues in its usual satisfactory manner. The Rev. Warren M. Smaltz, who has been Missionary-in-charge for ten years, resigned November 1, 1932, and has been succeeded by the Rev. Henry J. Pulver.

An excellent work was done by the Rev. Mr. Smaltz, who has gone to take charge of the Work Among the Deaf in other Dioceses of the State.

The Rev. Mr. Pulver was ordained at All Souls Church for the Deaf and has recently been in charge of the work in the other Dioceses of Pennsylvania. He reports increased congregations at the Church services and great interest manifested by the members. The deaf, because of their infirmity, find it difficult to obtain employment. They are usually the first discharged and the last to be engaged. The lack of employment has caused them much suffering and hardship. Friends of the deaf have kindly come to their assistance and provided funds which have been used largely for made work for the deaf, and for providing their other needs.

The Commission appreciates the liberality of these donors. It believes that the Mission has entered upon a new lease of active life under the leadership of the Rev. Mr. Pulver.

J. O. MCILHENNY,
For the Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf

APPENDIX O

Report on the Proposed Celebration of the 150th Diocesan Anniversary

At the 1930 Convention of the Diocese, by resolution the Bishop was requested to appoint a committee of seven to consider the advisability of arranging for observing the Anniversary in 1934 of the meeting preliminary to the securing of the episcopate and the organization of the Diocese.

Upon the death of the Chairman, the Bishop appointed the undersigned as his successor. The committee has given careful consideration to the subject, and is of the opinion that the significant steps taken in 1784 should be suitably commemorated.

You may think it in order to recall here something of the background of what you have referred to us. For ninety years the English Church in this Colony had been notably influential under superior leadership, deeply enriching the development of personal and public character with outstanding personalities.

Henry Compton, Bishop of London, secured the introduction of our Communion into this Quaker settlement in 1695; and sent over that resourceful missionary, Commissary Bray, who, out of his experience in this new land, inaugurated the S. P. G. and the S. P. C. K., unsurpassed agencies for the winning of souls throughout the English-speaking world. With the encouragement of such alert leaders, the local laymen founded the first parish and were provided with consecrated clergymen and teachers, who addressed themselves laboriously to the extension of God's Kingdom here and beyond. The story of Evan Evans alone forms one of the outstanding chapters in our American Church History; for eighteen years, 1699-1718, he built the Church into the life of the Colony, and passed the torch on to the kindred hands of his four successors who preceded William White. It was to such spiritual fathers that we owe the characters and careers of our nation-builders, as well as the benevolent institutions, educational and philanthropic, that are today unsurpassed centers of Christian activity.

While the Revolution had a temporarily devastating effect upon our ecclesiastical heritage (particularly in other colonies), a priest was at hand here who by his singular gifts and devotion, through an extraordinarily extended ministry, became the veritable father of our resuscitated national Church. William White, born in 1748, ordained at the age of twenty-two, was, at the Signing of the Declaration of Independence, but twenty-eight years of age. He took his stand, as the Chaplain of the new Congress, and the pastor of patriot chiefs in the Capitol City of the infant Nation. Foremost Americans associated themselves with him in reconstructing the historic spiritual fabric.

Mindful of the apostolic injunction to extend their witness in the natural order, "at Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria and unto the uttermost part of the earth," he addressed himself to laying broad foundations; writing voluminously from his rich theological learning, introducing the Sunday School and organizing other educational movements and philanthropies; gathering about him choice native youth whom he trained for the ministry, among them such assistants and successors as Kemper, Milnor, Muhlenberg, Hobart, DeLancey and others; and setting forward good-will with all Christians in the land of hope for religious liberty. So that toward the close of his long and fruitful bishopric, conditions here were quite other than those that harassed the Mother Land when in '33 Keble delivered his famous "Assize Sermon"; indeed, such spiritual sons of the patriarch as Muhlenberg and Hobart anticipated and counselled early Oxford leaders.

Upon the signing of the Treaty of Peace he undauntedly inaugurated the movement to revive the Church. Early in 1784, when he was but thirty-six years of age, he began a series of meetings, at first in his own house and later in his United Parishes. There were seven of these meetings that year here, and the eighth discreetly assembled in New York.

Let us virtually quote from the records:

On March 29th, '84, by appointment of the Vestries of Christ Church and S. Peter's and S. Paul's, four deputies from these Churches met with the three ministers at the house of Dr. White, to confer concerning the formation of a representative body of the Episcopal Church in the State. They met again in the same place two days later with other Churchmen, and drafted a letter to be sent to the different congregations in the State proposing a plan of ecclesiastical government, to be submitted for the general concurrence of the Episcopalians in the United States, which plan should be considered at a fuller meeting to be held on the 24th of May. That meeting extended through three days. They agreed to be bound by the following instructions:

> That the Episcopal Church in these States is and ought to be independent of all foreign authority, ecclesiastical or civil;
> That it hath and ought to have in common with all other religious societies full and exclusive powers to regulate the concerns of its own communion;
> That the doctrines of the Gospel be maintained as now professed by the Church of England, and uniformity of worship continued as near as may be to the Liturgy of said Church; and that the succession of the ministry be agreeable to the usage which requireth the three orders of Bishops, Priests and Deacons that the rights and powers of the same respectively be ascertained, and that they be exercised according to reasonable laws to be duly made;
> That to make canons or laws there be no other authority than that of a representative body of the clergy and laity conjointly and that no powers be delegated to a general ecclesiastical government except such as cannot conveniently be exercised by the clergy and laity in their respective congregations. Three hundred copies of the foregoing were printed and forwarded to every Church in the State.

In September, Dr. White's committee resolved to assemble in New York in October, where they were joined by deputies from Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland; Mr. Griffith, from Virginia, was present, but not as a delegate, as restrictive laws were still in force in that State. This meeting recommended that the clergy and congregations in all the States should unite in a general ecclesiastical constitution on the following fundamental principles:

1. That there be a general convention of the Episcopal Church in the United States of America;
2. That the Episcopal Church in each State send deputies to the convention consisting of clergy and laity;
3. That associated congregations in two or more States may send deputies jointly;
4. That the said Church shall maintain the doctrines of the Gospel as now held by the Church of England; and shall adhere to the Liturgy of the said Church as far as shall be consistent with the American Revolution and the constitutions of the respective States;
5. That in every State where there shall be a Bishop duly consecrated and settled he shall be considered as a member of the convention ex-officio;
6. That the clergy and laity assembled in convention shall deliberate in one body, but shall vote separately, and the concurrence of both shall be necessary to give validity to every measure;
7. That the first meeting of the convention shall be at Philadelphia the Tuesday before the Feast of S. Michael next.

On February 7th, '85, Dr. White's committee met at his house and resolved to send a copy of the foregoing to the Churches in the State and recommend that deputies be sent by the several congregations to organize the Episcopal Church in this State; the convention duly assembled in Christ Church on May 23 and 24, '85, organized as proposed, and elected deputies to the general convention to be held in September.

The minutes of these several initiatory gatherings are on file at the Church House. They are brief and of singular significance; and should be reprinted in full, together with the names.

These paved the way for the session held in Christ Church on May 23, 1785. It put forth "The Fundamental Principles of the Church," and took other forward-looking steps. It sent William White to London to secure Episcopal consecration; and after patient conference with the authorities there, ecclesiastical and parliamentary, he was duly consecrated Bishop in 1787.

Returning to his field of labor, by simplicity and godly wisdom, he commended, to a community suspicious of anything British, the apostolic Episcopate; and by "steadfast gentleness" won into coöperative unity Seabury and his eastern following. Under such guidance the epochal General Convention of 1789 assembled here; and it adopted the name of the Church; authorized a revised Book of Common Prayer; and agreed upon the Constitution of the Church. This Convention held its sessions in Christ Church and in the State House and in the College of Philadelphia.

With William White, now Presiding Bishop, the General Convention of 1821 met in S. Peter's Church, when the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society was formed. And again in 1835 in S. Andrew's Church, White's Assistant, Jackson Kemper, was consecrated to be the first Domestic Missionary Bishop.

It will also be recalled that in 1844 at S. Peter's Church Bishop Boone was consecrated as the first Foreign Missionary Bishop; and again in 1865 at the close of the Civil War a Service of Thanksgiving to God was held in St. Luke's for having granted "Peace to the Nation and Unity to the Church."

Accordingly your committee recommends: that these memorable events, and the personages who produced them, and their far-reaching benefits should be duly set forth in some such program as the following: the Bishop and Committee on Dispatch of Business be requested to make appropriate provision for a fitting presentation of the subject at the 150th Convention of the Diocese; and that furthermore, on some convenient day or days in October, '34, when the General Convention meets in Atlantic City, arrangements should be made for a reception here to invited guests from the General Convention and local Churchmen, preceding an evening service with a commemorative sermon by the Presiding Bishop or someone representing him; and on the next day there should be early celebrations of the Holy Communion in designated Churches; and at 9.30 A. M. Holy Communion should be celebrated by the Bishop of Pennsylvania in a Church of his choosing, followed by a luncheon; and that the other Bishops in Pennsylvania be invited to deliver addresses at convenient times on these occasions.

We are fortunate in having the very buildings still preserved and in active use, in which these memorable meetings were held, and where it has been suggested that pageants can be staged and pictured.

It is further suggested that illustrated booklets should be prepared. It should be possible to enlist the coöperation of competent authorities in publishing pamphlets, sketching the revival of the post-Revolutionary Church, correcting persistent misconceptions and presenting information of primary importance, calculated to inspire fresh enthusiasm for Christ and His Church. Diocesan organizations and institutions should be interested to take active part; men, women and children should find place in the programs. The story to be told is of superior importance; and the time is ripe for Pennsylvania to tell it. There is as yet no adequate history of the Episcopal Church, and no worthy life of William White. This Anniversary can be made the occasion for accomplishing something toward making amends for Philadelphia's culpable reticence.

Your committee further recommends that it be empowered and instructed, in conference with the Bishop, to add to its members, and to appoint other necessary committees to attend to the several duties included in the program, and that it shall report at the May Convention on the progress made for the October exercises.

The foregoing is presented to you in obedience to instructions, but with a due sense of the difficulties ahead in proceeding further. Only in response to a very general and very hearty desire on the part of this body, and reliance upon your enlisting your parishioners in the movement, can they undertake the next steps.

All of which is respectfully submitted, and the Resolution offered:

That the Report be received and its recommendations in general be approved.

APPENDIX P

Report of the Student Commission

Regular meetings were held throughout the year. Study of a comprehensive plan for developing work in the Diocese as a whole was undertaken.

In addition to the long-founded and well-developed work at the University of Pennsylvania, work for students has been carried on at Temple, Swarthmore, West Chester State, Drexel, Downingtown, Cheney Normal, Lincoln, Bryn Mawr, Haverford, Beaver and Ursinus. This work has been under the direction of leaders chiefly responsible for the student work in a few cases, but in most, under clergy already burdened with many other responsibilities. The amount and kind of work has varied naturally. It should be said here that almost all direction was voluntary and expenses contributed.

The only recorded expense for the year was a grant of $250.00 for the work at Temple University.

The Chairman in the course of the year held a large number of conferences with clergy in charge of or interested in the work, and also with Deans of Convocations.

A Diocesan plan for recording and forwarding names of church students in institutions of higher learning was worked out and put into operation with good results, which should be improved upon from year to year. As one useful feature, the plan provides the Bishop of the Diocese with a large list of names which may well be called his student congregation. A considerable number of the clergy responded as requested to the letters sent out in the early fall. Prompt and more general response this year will enable the plan to be much more useful. It is desired that replies be had from all to whom letters are sent, even if there be no students to record for the current year.
